FOREWORD

Human trafficking is a complex and multi-dimensional organised crime that is victimising millions of girls across the world. The inhuman exploitation of young adolescent girls and women through trafficking is more in underdeveloped and developing countries. The trafficking is taking place in varied forms and is becoming difficult to prevent by the government machinery alone.

The trafficking signifies wide ranging crimes like cheating, kidnapping, abduction, buying, selling, and wrongful confinement thus manifesting in various forms of exploitation.

The human trafficking is also resulting in crimes like child labour, bonded labour, sexual exploitation, rape, organ trade, etc.,

In order to deal with this highly organised crime of human trafficking, it has been recognised and proved that only a concerted and an efficiently organised response system must be put in place in the first instance.

It calls for the united effort from all stakeholders with effective discharging of their individual responsibilities while working in tandem under a common umbrella goal of rooting out human trafficking in all forms.

In this context, I am really glad to know that a definitive response system that encompasses advocacy, prevention, action, rescue, and rehabilitation is being promoted by Prajwala, India, a pioneering anti-trafficking organisation founded by Ms Sunitha Krishnan, the Padma Shri awardee.

İ

I really appreciate the daring initiatives with stupendous conviction, whole hearted dedication, and impeccable integrity of Ms Sunitha Krishnan and her Team Prajwala in carrying out their inspiring fight against human trafficking with special focus on sex trafficking for the past two decades.

In this backdrop, I extend my heartiest congratulations to Prajwala for successfully coming out with the customised Handbooks on Human Trafficking for five different warriors in this fight.

The exhaustive and highly informative Customised-Handbooks, which are replete with numerous case studies, will help the duty bearers in their efforts to obliterate human trafficking which results in a brazen violation of basic human rights of the victims and is robbing of them of their human dignity, protection, and self-determination.

The five specialised and customised handbooks will go a long way in training and empowering Judicial Officers, Prosecuting Officers, Labour Officers, Child Welfare Committees, and Civil Society Organisations in ending trafficking.

The Handbooks, I am sure, will serve as the ready-reckoner, for the duty bearers in preventing and fighting against all forms of human trafficking and to effectively prosecute those who perpetrate such heinous crimes.

The customised handbooks will also help to fight against human trafficking with a noble aim to create a safe and protective environment for victims of this atrocious crime.

I found the customised handbooks, written in lucid style laced with many real-life examples and come up with practical and legal solutions to deal with the complex crime of this nature will immensely be helpful in effective discharge of the duties by the officers concerned.

I deeply appreciate the unique and gigantic initiative of collating and presenting exhaustive information compiled in the customised handbooks.

I am sure the handbooks will serve as the game changers in the functioning of the duty bearers in their respective areas of work while dealing with the inhuman crime of human trafficking. Legendary Saint Thiruvalluvar, the great philosopher, in his immortal "Thirukkural" has said

``ஒழுக்கத்தின் ஒல்கார் உரவோர் இழுக்கத்தின் ஏதம் படுபாக் கறிந்து″

Which means that

"Those firm in mind will not slacken in their observance of the proprieties of life, knowing, as they do, the misery that flows from the transgression from them."

I hope all the warriors of this maha yagna of eradication of human trafficking from the State of Telangana will keep this in mind while dealing with the cases relating to human trafficking.

I extend my hearty congratulations and heartfelt appreciation to Ms Sunitha Krishnan and her Team Prajwala for the inspiring work done to bring out these handbooks and for their tremendous selfless and daring work with an objective to end human trafficking and in giving a new life to the most vulnerable sections.

I wish your amazing and inspiring work continues to inspire many to be part of this mission to end human trafficking and all forms of exploitation.

Best wishes

FOREWORD

Trafficking in any form is a curse – whether it is trafficking in animals or in humans. It crushes the spirit and soul of the victim. Unfortunately, this crime does not seem to be going away and being an underground activity, the number of victims mentioned in official records may not necessarily be reflecting the true picture.

The task of obliterating trafficking from the face of the Earth is not the sole responsibility of the government - all of us, as responsible citizens, have an obligation to humanity to ensure that trafficking is abolished. But that is easier said than done. The next best that we can do is to try and wipe the tear from the eye of every victim. The five-volume Handbook on Human Trafficking is, in that sense, an extremely significant publication marking, as it were, a concerted step in that direction.

While each duty holder has his or her role to play in the exercise, it must be appreciated that only a concerted effort will yield results. Therefore, each of the duty holders addressed in these volumes must work in tandem. Parliament may enact excellent laws in relation to trafficking, but if they are not faithfully implemented, they will remain only in the statute and law books. Similarly, the State Government may frame excellent welfare schemes, but the benefits must roll out to those who need them. It is in this exercise that we must work collectively and with a mission.

It is also necessary to appreciate that there are several forms of exploitation that have been haunting adults and children – sexual exploitation is only one of them. There are instances of those who have been victims of a disaster having to take loans at usurious rates of interest and are unable to repay them. They are then victims of bonded labour and some of the more broken souls seek a violent release from bondage and the vicissitudes of life. Women are sometimes driven to prostitution and the girl child is sometimes forced into marriage, as the pandemic has shown us. There have been instances of the sale of children, illegal adoptions and worse, sale of organs. In each of such cases, the police, prosecution, judges and government officials at various levels have an important role to play. Civil society organizations can independently play a powerful role in changing the societal narrative in favour of the victims and providing them the support that laws and welfare schemes of State Governments seek to give as a matter of their right.

My commendations to all for their excellent work which, I am sure, will go a long way in alleviating the pain and suffering of so many.

HYDERABAD, INDIA

FOREWORD

Human trafficking threatens the security of people around the world. Trafficking is an extreme violation of human rights, infringing upon the basic rights to human dignity, self-determination, protection, and integrity of victims who may be women, men, or children.

Countries around the globe are battling this problem, and the United States is no exception. The U.S. government has strived to create comprehensive mechanisms to fight this menace domestically and internationally. Through the Department of State, the U.S. government has created global partnerships to combat human trafficking, bringing all segments of society to a common platform in the fight against modern day slavery.

The Governments of India and Telangana have taken measures to combat human trafficking. However, despite our best intentions the problem of human trafficking continues to grow, making it incumbent on us to strengthen our collective efforts, improve our capabilities, and build on existing momentum in eradicating this abhorrent evil.

Each year, human traffickers deprive millions of victims – through force, fraud, and coercion – of their unalienable rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Despite sustained anti-trafficking campaigns, low levels of awareness, poor conviction rates, and the risk of re-victimization, have hampered efforts to combat human trafficking. Judicial officers in India play an important role in this regard as they are the most important duty bearers in the criminal justice system responsible for delivering justice to victims of trafficking.

This user-friendly handbook compiled by experts in Indian jurisprudence provides a succinct, step-by step procedure for judicial officers when dealing with any case of human trafficking as per the Indian laws. It also provides details of all relevant welfare schemes and policies of the Government of Telangana, which provides support to the victim. Judicial Officers will greatly benefit from this comprehensive quick-reference handbook.

I would like to thank the Government of Telangana and our partner Prajwala, led by 2009 recipient of the U.S. Department of State TIP Report Hero Acting to End Modern Day Slavery Award Ms. Sunitha Krishnan, for their support in conceiving and implementing this project, which I see as another step towards dismantling human trafficking and ensuring the protection of future generations.

FOREWORD

The Crime in India Report 2019, issued by the National Crime Records Bureau, Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India states that the conviction rate in trafficking cases is 29.1%. An analysis of the Crime in India Report issued by the NCRB in the last 3 years shows that the average conviction rate in trafficking cases is 32.7%. It has been observed that there are 3 main reasons for the low convictions rate:

- 1. Hostile witnesses
- 2. Inadequate investigation
- 3. Delay in a trial resulting in loss of evidence

Human Trafficking is an organised crime with transnational reach and connections. In this scenario, it is imperative that law enforcement bodies and prosecution agencies address it as such and ensure culpability in all cases. Threat, intimidation, repeatedly having to describe past trauma and the high costs involved are just some of the reasons victims feel discouraged to access justice through the criminal justice system. In the current system, the weight of evidence is on the victim and this needs to change to ensure victim protection and effective prosecution in cases of human trafficking.

The Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India in its recent advisories No. 24013/4/2020-ATC issued on 6th July 2020 and No. 15011/31/2019-ATC issued on 27th December 2019, emphasized the role of the prosecution in combating the organised crime of human trafficking in the country. The role of the Judiciary is essential to ensure justice is done and the rights of the victims are protected in the process.

This user-friendly handbook for the Judiciary in Telangana is an attempt to collate existing laws, policies and judgements to empower the Judiciary while hearing cases of human trafficking, keeping the victim at the centre of focus. For the first time, laws and policies related to all forms of human trafficking have been collated and complied in a concise manner to serve as a reference handbook for the stakeholder.

I place my humble gratitude to Smt. Perugu Sreesudha, Chairperson, Telangana Cooperative Tribunal and Shri Shasikanta Mishra, Principal Secretary, Law Department, Government of Odisha for their support in reviewing this handbook and making it relevant for all Judicial Officers in Telangana.

This handbook would not be possible without the support of our valued partner International Justice Mission, India whose practical experience and longstanding efforts in the anti-trafficking mission shaped the content.

The U.S. Consulate General Hyderabad and the U.S. Embassy, New Delhi has been our long-standing partner and collaborator supporting us actively in the anti-trafficking mission. I humbly acknowledge the entire team of Public Affairs, U.S. Consulate General Hyderabad who was actively involved in the development of this handbook.

I do believe this humble initiative will be a ready to use guide for any Judicial Officer who is dealing with a case of human trafficking, supporting the prosecution to uphold truth and ensure justice for the victim.

Sunitha Krishnan Padmashree Awardee Founder, Prajwala

PREFACE

From the word go, this Handbook was meant to be a practical tool to aid Judicial Officers to preside over trafficking cases and ensure justice for victims. To maintain this objective, a brief needs assessment was conducted with Judicial Officers across the country. The goal was to understand the following:

- Specific challenges Judges face while prosecuting human trafficking cases
- b. Gaps in current resource materials available to Judicial Officers
- c. Recommendations for the development of the Handbook

The conclusion of the needs assessment is below:

Challenges faced by Judicial Officers include:

- 1. Witnesses especially victims turning hostile.
- 2. Delays in the trial (Mainly caused by unnecessary adjournments and non-attendance of official witnesses such as Medical Officers and Investigating Officers on the date fixed).
- 3. Victim's unwillingness to testify due to stigma.
- 4. Lack of institutional mechanism for convergence amongst duty bearers resulting in the lack of legal support to victims.

Based on this needs assessment, it was felt that the current handbook for judiciary must encompass the following points:

- The handbook must be in the format of a ready reckoner that lays down the rights a victim has during a trial and the mandate of the court in a human trafficking case.
- Content must include both Central and State Government notifications and G.O.s and government schemes for rehabilitation.
- 3. Summary of judgements relevant to human trafficking cases.

This user-friendly handbook has been designed primarily as a ready reckoner supported with citations. The hope is that this handbook serves as a guide to the judges on their role in the various stages of human trafficking cases.

HOW TO USE THE HANDBOOK

This Handbook provides an outline of the role that Judicial Officers play in a human trafficking case as one of the primary functionaries in our criminal justice system. The role of the Judicial Officers has been derived from existing laws, judgements, policies, Government Orders and Standard Operating Procedures issued to combat trafficking.

This handbook has two segments:

- Role of Judicial Officers This provides the role of the Judicial Officer in a sequential manner right from the start of the case, from the first remand hearing to the judgement.
- II. Policies and Schemes This provides the relevant policies and schemes of the Government of Telangana that can be used for the welfare and rehabilitation of the victim. This segment also provides the relevant court rulings that the Judiciary can use.

POINTS FOR CONSIDERATION FOR USING THIS HANDROOK

Some important points to use this handbook are:

- i. The 'Role of Judiciary' is a comprehensive chapter that details the stepby-step process in a case. Each step has the statutory requirement clearly outlined, additionally, it also provides the policies and schemes of the Government of Telangana which can be used for the welfare of the victim at that stage.
- ii. As victim assistance and support are integrated into the sequential steps, if provided it could greatly enhance the efficiency of the trial.
- iii. The 'Policies and Schemes' chapter is a ready reference of all the relevant policies and schemes issued by the Government of Telangana, which if appropriately used can become a great support mechanism for a victim who will be further motivated to testify in the court. The chances of compliance of a policy or a scheme is much higher if there is a supporting judicial order.

How to use the Handbook

ROLE OF JUDICIAL OFFICERS

ROLE OF JUDICIAL OFFICERS

The role of a Judicial Magistrate in human trafficking cases begins either when the police file the first remand report before the said Magistrate or a complaint case is filed before the said Magistrate. In special situations, the Magistrate can also initiate a rescue. Either way, the Judicial Magistrate may or may not see the victims at this stage. It is imperative that the Magistrate considers the rights of the victim and needs of the victim at every stage of the case.

In cases of human trafficking, it is always seen that the organized criminal syndicate actively tries to influence the victim by either intimidation or emotional manipulation to go hostile, hence safety and protection of the victim are paramount which needs to be taken into account at every step when a victim is required in the court.

Human Trafficking cases could be for the purposes of commercial sexual exploitation, forced labour or bonded labour.

A Special Court constituted u/s 22A ITPA and presided over by a Judicial Magistrate First Class will hear cases registered under ITPA. Cases registered under POCSO will be heard by a Special Court presided over by a Session Judge constituted u/s 28, 31 and 33 of POCSO. In accordance with Sec. 33(1) of POCSO, the Special Court can take cognizance of an offence under the Act without any order of committal for trial. It can be done on a complaint disclosing facts, which constitute such an offence, or upon a police report on such facts. A case registered under 370 IPC and the SC/ST (POA) Act will be heard by a Judicial Magistrate and after commitment, it will be heard by Special Court constituted under the SC/ST (POA) Act. A case registered u/s 370 IPC and the Bonded Labour Systems Act (BLSA) will be heard by a Judicial Magistrate in the pretrial stage and a Sessions Court after commitment. Please note that in a case where IPC sections are charged in addition to BLSA, the District Magistrate has no jurisdiction to hear the said case.

SOME SALIENT FEATURES OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING

- 1. A human being trafficked at any age:
 - a) Raj Bahadur v. the State of W.B., 1953 SCC OnLine Cal
 129 that traffic in human beings means to deal in men

- and women like goods, such as to sell or let or otherwise dispose of
- b) Vishal Jeet v. Union of India, (1990) 3 SCC 318 child/ women put to flesh trade
- c) Bandhua Mukti Morcha v. Union of India, (1984) 3 SCC 161
 Human put to bonded labour.
- 2. Consent of the victim/s is immaterial as per Explanation 2 of Sec 370 IPC
- 3. It's a misconception that agents and contractors are not traffickers as these are the persons who transport the victim from the source (village/town/city) to the destination and not the factory/brothel owner. Anyone who recruits or transports or harbours or transfers or receives the person/s by threats/force/abduction/fraud/abuse of power/inducement for exploitation, then that person commits the offence of trafficking u/s 370 IPC.
- 4. The trafficker could be well known to the victim or a stranger.
- 5. Parent/Guardian could also be a trafficker.
- Need not always be transborder / inter-state, could be intrastate, inter/ intra-district, inter/intra villages or within the place of residence.
- 7. Victim's sense of understanding of the offence committed on her/him in most cases is barely minimal.
- 8. The offence could be committed at the source, transit or destination location.
- 9. Increasingly, emotional manipulation and grooming are being used by traffickers to deceive victims and trap them in situations of exploitation.
- Trafficking by online means has further enabled this criminal industry to spread it as a borderless crime making it more difficult to detect.

Role of Judicial Officers

The role of the judiciary in human trafficking cases for commercial sexual exploitation/prostitution may differ from that of a labour trafficking case. Hence, the unique processes have been separately dealt with and the common process is written thereafter. For ease of understanding, this Section is divided into the following:

- A. First Court Hearing
 - In Sex Trafficking Cases
 - In Labor Trafficking Cases
 - A common process in all human trafficking cases
- B. Post Remand Hearings
- C. Some Useful Judgements

A. FIRST COURT HEARING

I. IN SEX TRAFFICKING CASES:

1. Power to Rescue

As per Sec. 16, ITPA a First Class Magistrate has the power to direct for a rescue of a trafficked victim.

Sec. 16 ITPA

Rescue of person-(1) Where a Magistrate has reason to believe from information received from the police or from any other person authorized by the State Government in this behalf or otherwise, that any person is living, or is carrying, or is being made to carry on, prostitution in a brothel, he may direct a police officer, not below the rank of a sub-inspector to enter such brothel and to remove therefrom such person and produce her before him and (2) The police officer, after removing the person shall forthwith produce her before the Magistrate issuing the order.

2. Production of Victim

- i) The Police Officer will produce any major victim removed u/s 15(4) or u/s 16(1) of the ITPA, 1956 from a place of commercial sexual exploitation before a Magistrate within 24 hours as u/s 17(1) of the ITPA.
- ii) As u/s 17(1) ITPA, if the appropriate Magistrate is unavailable, then the Police Officer must produce the victims to the nearest magistrate of any class, who will pass an order for intermediate custody, which shall not be more than 10 days till the victim can be produced before the appropriate magistrate. Care should be taken to ensure that intermediate custody does not exceed 10 days and no person will be handed over to any person who may exercise harmful influence.

Sec. 17(1) ITPA

When the special police officer removing a person under sub-section (4) of Sec.15 or a police officer rescuing a person under sub-section (1) of Sec.16, is for any reason unable to produce her before the appropriate Magistrate as required by sub-section (5) of Sec.15, or before the Magistrate issuing the order under sub-section (2) of Sec.16, he shall forthwith produce her before the nearest Magistrate of any class, who shall pass such orders as he deems proper for her safe custody until she is produced before the appropriate Magistrate, or, as the case may be, the Magistrate issuing the order: Provided that no person shall be,

- (i) detained in custody under this sub-section for a period exceeding ten days from the date of the order under this sub-section; or
- (ii) restored to or placed in the custody of a person who may exercise a harmful influence over her.
- iii) Medical Examination As per Sec. 15(5A), the victim should be sent for medical examination to a registered medical practitioner.

First Court Hearing 7

Sec. 15 (5A) ITPA

Any person who is produced before a Magistrate under sub-section (5), shall be examined by a registered medical practitioner for the purposes of determination of the age of such person, or for the detection of any injuries as a result of sexual abuse or for the presence of any sexually transmitted diseases. Explanation - In this sub-section, "registered medical practitioner" has the same meaning as in the Indian Medical Council Act, 1956 (102 of 1956).

3. Opportunity to be Heard

As per Sec. 17(2) ITPA, 1956, when the victim is produced before the appropriate magistrate, provide an opportunity for the victim/person to be heard.

4. Minor Victims

If the victim produced is a minor (aged under 18 years), the Learned Magistrate has no jurisdiction and they should be forwarded to the CWC·u/s 29 of the JJA. The CWC as per Sec.31 of the JJA has the final authority for the care, protection, treatment, development and rehabilitation of children in need of care and protection.

In Prerana v. State of Maharashtra 2003 (2) MhLj 105, Hon'ble Bombay High Court held that no Magistrate can exercise jurisdiction over any person under 18 years of age if such person is in need of care and protection.

Sec. 29 of JJA

(1) The Committee shall have the authority to dispose of cases for the care, protection, treatment, development and rehabilitation of children in need of care and protection, as well as to provide for their basic needs and protection. (2) Where a Committee has been constituted for any area, such Committee shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, but save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, have the power to deal exclusively with all proceedings under this Act relating to children in need of care and protection.

Sec. 31 of JJA

- (1) Any child in need of care and protection may be produced before the Committee by any of the following persons, namely:
 - (i) any police officer or special juvenile police unit or a designated child welfare police officer or any officer of the district child protection unit or inspector appointed under any labour law for the time being in force;
 - (ii) any public servant;
 - (iii) Childline Services or any voluntary or non-governmental organization or any agency as may be recognized by the State Government;
 - (iv) Child Welfare Officer or probation officer;
 - (v) any social worker or a public-spirited citizen;
 - (vi) by the child himself; or
 - (vii) any nurse, doctor or management of a nursing home, hospital or maternity home.

Provided that the child shall be produced before the Committee without any loss of time, but within a period of twenty-four hours excluding the time necessary for the journey.

5. Inquiry

As per Sec.17 (2) of ITPA,1956, direct a Probation Officer appointed under the Probation of Offender's Act, 1958 (20 of 1958) to cause an inquiry on the following:

First Court Hearing

- a) The correctness of the information received u/s 16 (1)
- b) The age and character antecedents of the person/victim
- c) Suitability of parents, guardian or husband for taking charge of the person/victim
- d) Nature of influence the conditions in the home is likely to have if sent home.

6. Temporary Custody

As per Sec.17(3) of ITPA, the inquiry period should not exceed 21 days and the person/victim should be kept in safe custody ensuring there is no harmful influence. Direct for temporary protective custody of the person/victim to a Protective Home licensed u/s 21 of the ITPA as per Sec.17(2) of ITPA.

7. Care & Protection of Victims:

(i) As the per the inquiry report submitted by the DPO if the person/victim requires care and protection, direct the person to be kept in a credible Protective Home licensed u/s 21 of ITPA and in accordance with Sec.17(4) of ITPA for a period not less than one year and not more than three years.

Ensure:

- a) A bond is secured from the In-charge of the Protective Home giving undertaking regarding proper care, guardianship, education, training, medical and psychiatric treatment (Sec.17(4) of ITPA).
- b) A person is appointed on behalf of the court to monitor the above undertaking.

Sec. 17(5) of ITPA

Consider each case uniquely. In case there is a need for specialised intervention, summon a panel of five respectable persons/social workers who can assist in directing a holistic rehabilitation plan.

(ii) Direct the Department of Women Development and Child Welfare, Government of Telangana to issue Rs. 20,000/- (or whatever is the amount as per the updated policy) as relief amount to the women and child victims. This is in compliance of G.O.M No. 28 dated 15/10/2012 issued by the Department of Women Development and Child Welfare, Govt. of A.P. [Refer - Relevant Policy I]

(iii) Direct the Protective Home to comply with the Minimum Standards of Care provided for in G.O.M. No. 16, dated 24/04/2010 issued by the Department of Women Development, Child Welfare and Disabled Welfare, Govt. of A.P. [Refer - Relevant Policy II]

8. Conditions for custody petition

As per Sec. 17 A, direct a credible/recognized welfare organization to conduct a Home Investigation to ascertain:

- · Genuineness of the parents, guardian or husband claiming custody
- The capacity of the claimant to keep/look after the victim/person

Home Investigation Report

Home Investigation Report (HIR) is a confidential report that records observations on the home environment of the person filing custody petition for the victim and assess the potential risks of the victim being re-trafficked if handed to the petitioner.

Home inquiry for victims might indicate the likelihood of the custody petitioner who could be the parents/members of the family or extended families being involved in trafficking or living on the earnings of the victim. It should be specifically recorded in the HIR whether the address of the victim was traced and verified. This would also include the family's socioeconomic situation, physical condition of the house, neighbourhood environment and the psychological condition of the family. Some other factors that should be studied is the family's response when the victim left home, whether any missing complaint was filed.

The HIR cannot assess the family being 'permanently unfit' but can be assessed as 'currently unfit'. After considering all the facts gathered, the Magistrate will then make final orders for the safety and care of minor/major victims of trafficking. The magistrate must consult a panel of 5 respectable social workers while issuing order for the custody of victims and passing the placement order in accordance with the judgement passed by the Hon'ble Delhi High court in the case of Kumari Sangeetha v. State. 1995 Cri. L.J. 3923 (Del.).

Procedure for Custody of Victim in Second Production Court Hearing (Sec. 15-17 ITPA)

Direct the Protective Home to provide an Individual Care Plan of the victim based on her aptitude and education. Based on the Individual Care Plan of the victim, pass the following directions for the protection and rehabilitation of the victims:

- i. Recommend the DM to implement the following G.O. issued by the Department of Women Development, Child Welfare and Disabled Welfare, Govt. of A.P for sustainable livelihood and rehabilitation of trafficked victims:
 - a) G.O.M No. 14 dated 23/05/2008 for 70% reservation of seats for trafficked victims for the diploma course in Smt. Durgabai Deshmukh Women Technical Training Institute, Hyderabad. [Refer - Relevant Policy III]
 - b) G.O.M No. 47 dated 31/08/2010 for 'Reservation of Child Victims in Govt. run residential institutions'. [Refer Relevant Policy IV]

II. IN LABOUR TRAFFICKING CASES

Unlike ITPA, in labour trafficking cases especially in bonded labour cases where entire families have been trafficked, there is no mandate under the law to produce the 'victim families' before a court of law. They are produced before a District Magistrate (DM) for rehabilitation purposes. Hence, the day after the rescue operation and filing of the FIR, the accused are produced before the Court for the remand hearing. During the said hearing if the Court is of the opinion that the necessary rehabilitation measures and proceedings have not been initiated in accordance with the existing laws and policies, then directions for the same may be passed.

In such situations:

1. Recommend the DM:

- i. To immediately conduct inquiry under the Bonded Labour System Abolition Act, 1976 (if it is a bonded labour case) and Central Sector Scheme for Rehabilitation of Bonded Labourers, 2016, F. First Court Hearing 15

Refer: Babita Kalkhor v. State, 2012 ALL MR (Cri.) 495 (Bom.) & Prerana v. Maharashtra, Cr. Writ Petition No. 1694 of 2003.

Direct the IO to-

- i. Forward the case documents to the DM, the Chair of the District Level Committee on Human Trafficking formed vide G.O.M No. 1, 'Policy for Combatting Trafficking of Women and Children for CSE' issued by the Department of Women Development and Child Welfare, Govt. of A.P. on 03/01/2003 [Refer - Relevant Policy XIII] to enable the Committee to monitor the rehabilitation and case progress of the victims.
- Forward the case documents to DLSA for interim compensation u/s 357A CrPC and for assigning a Panel Advocate and Para Legal Volunteer.
- iii. Initiate proceedings under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 if applicable.
- iv. Notify the District AHTU, State AHTU and State Nodal Office of Human Trafficking (if the case isn't from AHTU) and to State Nodal Officer for Human Trafficking for monitoring purposes in compliance with G.O.M No. 165 dated 25/06/2011 issued by the Home Department, Govt. of A.P. [Refer - Relevant Policy XIV]
- v. In cases of inter-state trafficking where victims have returned to their home state, to record victim's statements u/s 161 CrPC via video conferencing facilitated by DLSA, since Memo No. 2323/ W.P. A 2/2011 dated 02/04/2014 issued by Department of Women Development and Child Welfare, Govt. of A.P provides for victims evidence in court to be recorded via video conferencing. [Refer - Relevant Policy XV]
- vi. If victims are being threatened, to proceed under the Witness Protection Scheme, 2018 issued by the Ministry of Home Affairs, GoI and in the judgement passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India dated 5th December, 2018 in WP (Cri) No. 156 of 2016.
- vii. Conduct medical test of the victims for the purposes of determination/ age verification (Ossification test), injury or diseases incidental to the exploitation, if not conducted already. viii. Direct IO to prepare victim impact assessment report.

Victim Impact Assessment:

In the case of State of M.P. v. Saleem, (2005) 5 SCC 554, the Supreme Court of India held that the quantum of punishment must be consistent with the atrocity and brutality that the crime infliction has brought down upon the victim. For this purpose, a Victim Impact Statement allows the courts to factor in the extent of the damage which has been caused to the victim as a direct result of the offence.

The Delhi High Court in Satya Prakash v. State, (2013) 3 MWN (Cri) 373, held for the first time that SHO of the concerned police station must be deputed to conduct an inquiry and lodge a report termed – 'Victim Impact Report' in cases of road accidents. However, in order to guarantee to victims the right to be heard and considered, there is an urgent need to make the concept of Victim Impact Statement applicable to the criminal justice system in general.

2. Legal Aid

Recommend the DLSA to:

- Initiate process for interim compensation to be provided to the victim in accordance with G.O.M No. 9 dated 07/03/2015 issued by the Telangana State Legal Services Authority u/s 357A CrPC [Refer - Relevant Policy XVI]. Recommendation must be made to the DLSA irrespective of the decision of conviction or acquittal of the accused in the case.
- ii. Ensure victim has received all rehabilitation benefits under various schemes and policies of the government.
- iii. Assign a panel advocate to represent the victims in the case and a Para Legal Volunteer for follow up of rehabilitation. This is in accordance with the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 and the NALSA (Victims of Trafficking and Commercial Sexual Exploitation) Scheme, 2015. [Refer - Relevant Policy XVII]
- iv. To coordinate with the respective DLSA of the district where the victim currently resides, in cases of inter-state and inter-district trafficking. In case of a child victim, such order shall be simultaneously forwarded to

- the respective Child Welfare Committee for necessary information and action.
- v. To facilitate the recording of victim's statement via video conferencing in compliance with Memo No. 2323/ W.P. A 2/2011 dated 02/04/2014 issued by the Department of Women Development and Child Welfare, Govt. of A.P.

Victim Compensation

In the matter of Ankush Shivaji Gaikwad v. State of Maharashtra, (2013) 6 SCC 770, the Supreme Court held that firstly, Sec. 357 was introduced to reassure the victims that they are not forgotten in the criminal justice system and secondly, that while the provision leaves the question of award of compensation to the discretion of the court, it also confers a power coupled with a duty on the courts to apply their minds to the question of awarding compensation in every criminal case.

3. Charges

If offences listed on the FIR are incomplete, direct the IO to conduct further investigation.

For instance, on perusal of an FIR filed under the BLSA, the Child and Adolescent Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act, 1986 and Sec. 342 IPC and case diary, the Court might assess that investigation u/s 370 IPC must be initiated since prima facie it seems to be a case u/s 370 IPC.

4. Victims Charged as Accused

If the FIR has u/s 4, 7 or 8 of the ITPA wrongly charged against the trafficked victims, the Learned Court must direct the IO to comply with the G.O. issued by Addl. DIG CID, A.P Hyderabad, C. No. 21/DIG/WPC/CID 2003 dated 19/04/2003. [Refer - Relevant Policy XVIII]

5. Foreign Victims

Foreign victims are also given equal status as victims of our country. In such cases, direct the IO to initiate process for repatriation of adult victims with concerned authorities (not deportation as they are victims not accused).

Government of India Office Memorandum No. 14051/14/2011-F. V1 dated 1 May 2012, notifies that Foreign National Human Trafficking Victims should be treated differently. The police should not treat Human Trafficking victims as accused under Foreigners Act. The memorandum further explains that such victim's details should be sent to the Ministry of External Affairs for repatriation to their country.

6. Charges under SC/ST (POA) Act:

If FIR contains charges under the SC/ST (POA) Act, recommend DM to issue victim compensation as provided for under the said Act as per the Notification G.S.R 316(E) dated 31/03/1996 issued by Ministry of Welfare in accordance with Sec 23(1) of the SC/ST (POA) Act. [Refer - Relevant Policy XIX]

B. POST REMAND HEARING

1. Support Person

Direct for a support person to accompany the victim during accused identification/ TI parade. Support person may be from a Protection Home/reputed anti-trafficking civil society organization or PLV from DLSA.

2. Recording of victim statement u/s 164 CrPC

Magistrate may record statement of the victim u/s 164 CrPC. In sex trafficking cases, due to the trauma the victim goes through, it is recommended that the victim statements u/s 164 CrPC be recorded only when victim is ready as held in Qutbun Nisha v. State of U.P., 2008 Cr. L.J. 3233, Magistrates should not immediately record victim statements u/s 164 of the CrPC.

A statement recorded u/s 164 (5A) of a person who is temporarily or permanently mentally or physically disabled shall be considered a statement in lieu of Examination in Chief.

3. Guidelines for Bail in Human Trafficking Cases

 Comply with the following guidelines laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and various High Courts for points to be considered during bail hearings in human trafficking cases.

ii. Decisions on bail should not be made unless the results of the age verification or re-age verification are received as the age of the victim is a critical factor for bail. Bail should be denied in ITPA offences involving minors as these are grave offences, Guria v. Uttar Pradesh, 2009 MANU S.C. 1345.

Freedom Firm v. Commissioner of Police, Pune and Ors., Cr. Public Interest Litigation No. 4 of 2015 decided by the Bombay High Court on 30.10.2015:

- "... We cannot but see the malaise as both astonishing as how a judicial officer can grant such bail and artful as to how an accused would successfully overreach law and justice." "... The application for bail must take into account —
- a. The fundamental right of the victim not to be trafficked . . .
- b. The antecedents of the accused . . .
- c. The repetitiveness of the offence since it is a career in crime, it is bound to be repeated upon the accused being released on bail thus trafficking further similar victims which is the State's duty to prevent.
- d. The intimidation and threat that accompanies the relationship between the accused and the victim. The victim is the helpless chattel of the accused, the accused being in a position to threaten her to lie and coerce her to turn hostile and thus tamper with evidence.
- e. The economic position of the accused, if a trafficker . . .
- f. The violence involved in the case reflected from the statement of the victim and the other witnesses . . .
- g. The subterfuge deployed by the accused in diverting the police machinery from himself or herself - when non traffickers and other docile persons who may be working for the accused in various positions may be kept in the frontline for arrest and who need to be released on bail as harmless co-accused."

The Bombay High Court has also given guidelines to be followed in relation to bail applications:

- "... It would be appropriate to set out some of the most needed guidelines thus:
 - (i) Bail should be denied to habitual offenders.
 - (ii) Bail should be refused to brothel owner until the brothel is closed and sealed.
 - (iii) Bail should also be denied if the victim is a minor.
 - (iv) Bail should also be denied in case of a violent offence which would be seen from the statements of the victims and witnesses.
 - (v) Bail, upon stringent conditions, (if at all), be granted to the trafficker or the brothel owners only after the statement of the victim is recorded u/s 164 of the CrPC and only if all other aforesaid conditions are met.
 - (vi) Anticipatory bail should be denied in ITPA cases.
 - (vii)Women accused who may be trafficker, brothel keeper or pimp have the benefit of not being arrested after sunset. Hence, if she has to be arrested the next day or has to be directed to report to the police station the next day, it should NOT be stated to be a reason for granting bail, she should be arrested during the legally permissible hours and her application for bail must be considered on the aforesaid parameters the next day.
 - (viii) The Magistrates and Judges shall use the following bail checklist proforma while deciding the application for bail:
 - i. Whether antecedents of the bail applicant have been checked.
 - ii. Whether antecedent report has been submitted before the Court.
 - iii. Whether the address of the bail applicant and the local surety has been verified by the Police and whether a report has been submitted before the Court.

- iv. Whether bail applicant has had bail cancelled in the past.
- v. If bail is applied for on medical grounds, whether treatment within the jail is possible.
- vi. Whether accused is likely to have contact with the victim and intimidate or threaten her.
- vii. Whether the accused is likely to repeat the offence, i.e., whether he/she would be able to return to and run the brothel
- viii. Whether the brothel is already sealed (and if not to undergo the process of sealing before any order of bail is passed)".

"Needless to mention that once an accused has absconded or jumped bail, his or her bail must be cancelled and treated as cancelled."

- iii. The Supreme Court in Upadhyay v Singh & Ors (2002) 3 SCC 598, recognized that a valid and "basic" ground upon which to cancel bail u/s 439(2) of the CrPC 1973 is if the accused tampers with evidence or threatens a prosecution witness.
- iv. In a trafficking case where SC/ST (POA) Act Sections are charged, accused are not entitled to anticipatory bail as per Sec. 18 of the Act.
- v. In cases where an accused has been charged u/s 370 of IPC and BLSA, a common objection is that the facts of the particular case does not attract the offence u/s 370 IPC. This is because, while offences under Sec. 370 are non-bailable, offences under the BLSA are bailable offences. Court must allow the argument of the prosecuting officers citing judgements wherein the accused has been convicted under both those offences.
- vi. The defence may also obtain affidavits from relatives of the victim stating that a false case has been lodged or that the victims migrated of their own volition. To counter this, two arguments may be allowed by the Court:

- (a) that the explanation to Sec. 370 of the IPC, 1860, states that consent of the victim is immaterial in determining the offence of trafficking or
- (b) that the Supreme Court in Rachapalli Abbulu and Others v. State of Andhra Pradesh (2002) 4 SCC 208, disapproved of the practice of such affidavits being obtained in advance and called it an attempt to subvert the justice system.

Rachapalli Abbulu and Others v. State of Andhra Pradesh [(2002) 4 SCC 208, the practice adopted by the defense side in getting the affidavits of these witnesses in advance is to be deprecated. That, in a way, amounts to an attempt aimed at dissuading the witnesses from speaking truth before the court. The Trial Judge as well as the High Court rightly rejected the defence contention. These witnesses appear to be illiterate persons. Their so-called affidavits must have been either cooked-up or obtained by playing a fraud on them. This type of interference in the criminal justice system shall not be encouraged and is to be viewed seriously.

vii. In the case of Thammanam Shaji Vs State of Kerala AIR 2006 SC 100, if any of the bail condition are violated, the Magistrate can cancel bail even if the bail is granted by higher courts.

4. Further Investigation

- i. May direct for further investigation in cases where charges filed are incomplete or where a B report is filed.
- ii. Ensure that the police submit a final report containing the following information:
 - a) The names of the parties;
 - b) The nature of the information;
 - c) The names of the persons who appear to be acquainted with the circumstances of the case;
 - d) Whether any offence appears to have been committed and, if so, by whom;
 - e) Whether the accused has been arrested;

- f) Whether the accused is released on his personal bond and, if so, with or without sureties;
- g) Whether he has been forwarded in custody u/s 170;
- h) All relevant supporting documents pertaining to the offence and
- i) The statements of all witness on which the prosecution intends to rely. Sec. 173 places a continuous duty on the IO to forward to the Magistrate any additional reports that may be necessary to keep the court updated of further facts that may have come to light or further evidence that the police may have obtained.

The Supreme Court has held that such investigation standards require police to question and record statements from parties who may possibly possess relevant information, to quickly take into custody hard evidence, and have experts file an urgent forensic report so that no valuable clues are lost.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Vinubhai Haribhai and Others v The State of Gujarat and Another dated 16 October, 2019 held that a judicial magistrate has wide powers u/s 156(3) read with Sec. 156(1) and Sec. 2(h) read with Sec. 173(8) of CrPC to direct further investigation, upon an application or suo moto, even at the post-cognizance stage before the commencement of trial.

Hon'ble Supreme Court in Bhagwant Singh vs. Commissioner of Police and Anr. (1985) 2 SCC 537, the report may conclude that an offence appears to have been committed by a particular person or persons and in such a case, the Magistrate may do one of three things:

- a) he may accept the report and take cognizance of the offence and issue process or
- b) he may disagree with the report and drop the proceeding or
- c) he may direct further investigation under sub-section (3) of Sec. 156 and require the police to make a further report.

The report may on the other hand state that, in the opinion of the police, no offence appears to have been committed and where such a report has been made, the Magistrate again has an option to adopt one of three courses:

(1) he may accept the report and drop the proceeding or

- (2) he may disagree with the report and taking the view that there is sufficient ground for proceeding further, take cognizance of the offence and issue process or
- (3) he may direct further investigation to be made by the police under subsection (3) of Sec. 156.

It also adds that if the Magistrate is not inclined to take cognizance of the offence and issue process, the informant must be given an opportunity of being heard (by filing a protest petition), so that he can make his submissions to persuade the Magistrate to take cognizance of the offence and issue process.

State of Punjab vs. CBI & Ors. (2011) 9 SCC 182, Elicits that the provisions of CrPC do not curtail or control the inherent powers of the High Court available u/s 482 of CrPC or the plenary powers of the Supreme Court available under Article 142 of the Constitution of India, or the writ jurisdiction of the Supreme Court and High Court under Article 32 and 226 of the Constitution respectively, and they are competent to direct reinvestigation to secure the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of any process of the Court.

Where a B report is filed by the Police

The magistrate on perusal of records finds u/s 161 CrPC statements are not aligned to charges, then can question why u/s 164 CrPC was not sought and record the same while directing further investigation.

5. Seeking status report in case of a prolonged investigation

Where filing of Final Report is delayed by IO, direct for IO to present the case diary to enquire about the status of the investigation u/s 172(2) of CrPC. The Court may then send for the police diary of the case, which contains a daily report of the steps taken in the investigation by the police officer and check the progress made in the investigation. The Court can monitor the investigation as per the decision in Sakri Vasu Vs State of U.P. and another (2008) 2 SCC 409.

Since human trafficking is an organised crime, the longer a Final Report is delayed, the greater is the loss of evidence due to attempts of intimidation and influence over victims.

6. Charges

At the time of framing of charges, if insufficient charges are filed, the Learned

Court may frame additional charges. It is seen that since there is low awareness of Sec. 370 IPC or the Special Laws, charge sheets don't always have accurate charges in trafficking cases thereby leading to a discharge or acquittal.

If a trafficked victim is charged as an accused, discharge the victim u/s 239 of CrPC.

Stree Atyachar Virodhi Parishad v. Dilip Nathumal Chordia (1989) 1 SCC 715, In fact, Sec. 227 itself contains enough guidelines as to the scope of enquiry for the purpose of discharging an accused. It provides that "the Judge shall discharge when he considers that there is no sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused". The 'ground' in the context is not a ground for conviction, but a ground for putting the accused on trial. It is in the trial, the guilt or the innocence of the accused will be determined and not at the time of framing of charges. The Court, therefore, need not undertake an elaborate enquiry in sifting and weighing the material. Nor it is necessary to delve deep into various aspects. All that the Court has to consider is whether the evidentiary material on record if generally accepted, would reasonably connect the accused with the crime. No more need be enquired into.

7. Trial

Hostile Witness/Victim

If victim/witness turns hostile while giving evidence, the Magistrate may allow the Prosecuting Officer to declare the victim hostile and proceed to crossexamine the witness and the parts of statement recorded u/s 161 of CrPC may be put to him/her and also direct IO to mark the contradiction.

Adding Documents/Witnesses

If certain documents are not present in the charge sheet, on the application of prosecuting officers, Court shall summon a witness through which the requisite documents may be exhibited. For e.g. if the charge sheet doesn't contain release certificates issued under the BLSA in a 370 IPC and BLSA case, then the SDM/DM who issued the RC may be summoned so the RCs can be exhibited. In sex trafficking cases, if proceedings u/s 18 of the ITPA for closure of brothel has been initiated, the DM may be summoned to exhibit the said documents. Also u/s 313 of CrPC, Magistrate may summon any person as witness, if his evidence appears to be essential to the just decision of the case.

Expedited Trials

- a) Dismiss applications of adjournment filed either by the prosecution or the defense. Ensure expedited trial.
- b) It is observed that prolonging a trial in a human trafficking case is a defence tactic to buy time so that crucial prosecution evidence such as the evidence of victims is lost. Hence, the trial must be completed in a timely manner.
- c) If there is delay in apprehending co-accused, file a petition asking for separate trial u/s 317(2) of CrPC.

The Supreme Court in Ashok Dhingra vs N C T of Delhi, (2000) 9 SCC 533 held that if the trial has been delayed on account of delay in apprehending the coaccused, the trial court may split up the case against the accused u/s 317 (2) of CrPC, and proceed with the trial so that the matter can be disposed as expeditiously as possible.

Sec. 35 POCSO:

u/s 35 of POCSO, evidence of a child is to be recorded within 30 days of taking cognizance of the offence by Special Court. Special Court to complete the trial within 1 year from the date of taking cognizance of offence.

Sec. 309 CrPC:

Sec. 309(1) instructs the Court to continue to examine witnesses in attendance.

Sec. 309 states:

- (1) In every inquiry or trial, the proceedings shall be held as expeditiously as possible, and in particular, when the examination of witnesses has once begun, the same shall be continued from day to day until all witnesses in attendance have been examined, unless the Court finds the adjournment of the same beyond the following day to be necessary for reasons to be recorded.
- (2) Sec. 309(2) instructs the Court not to adjourn when witnesses are in attendance and unexamined except for special reasons recorded in writing. Sec. 309(2) states in part (2), if the Court, after taking cognizance of an offence, or commencement of trial, finds it necessary or advisable to postpone the commencement of, or adjourn, any inquiry or trial, it may, from time to time, for reasons to be recorded, postpone or adjourn the same on such terms as it thinks fit, for such time as it considers reasonable, and may by a warrant remand the accused if in custody:

Provided that no Magistrate shall remand an accused person to custody under this section for a term exceeding fifteen days at a time:

Provided further that when witnesses are in attendance, no adjournment or postponement shall be granted, without examining them, except for special reasons to be recorded in writing.

Uttar Pradesh v Shambhu Nath Singh 2001 S.C 1403, The Supreme Court addressed the interpretation of Sec. 309 in Shambhu Nath Singh, paras. 11, 13 stating that "the court is not given any power to adjourn the case except in the extreme contingency" laid out in sub section 2 and made it clear that an adjournment requested for the convenience of the advocate is not a valid reason to grant an adjournment when witnesses are present. We make it abundantly clear that if a witness is present in court he must be examined on that day. Courts are to examine witnesses when present and if there exists "special reasons" for not examining those present, judicial officials must place those reasons in the order for adjournment. Court in the same judgement has required courts, in case of adjournments, to pay out costs to witnesses which are commensurate to the loss suffered by the witness. If the witness is present and the accused is absent, the Supreme Court has also stated that Courts can cancel the bail of the accused. Also, speedy trials are in the interest of society.

Proceeding against absconding accused: Every accused is given the right to a fair trial, which includes the opportunity to confront/cross examine witnesses. However, while this is an invaluable right, it is not absolute. Sec. 299 of CrPC allows for recording of evidence in the absence of the accused. This ensures when the accused is subsequently arrested and tried for the offences they have been charged with, they cannot benefit from the non- availability of witnesses due to their death or any other incapability to give evidence. Their previously recorded statements can form the basis of conviction against the accused who had absconded subject to the provisions of the Evidence Act.

Nirmal Singh vs the State of Rajasthan, 1999 (3) SCC 650, The Supreme Court held that statements of witnesses produced by the prosecution can be recorded u/s 299(1) of CrPC if the court is satisfied that the accused has absconded or that there is no immediate prospect of arresting him/her. Later when the accused is arrested and put up for trial, and such deposition of any witness is intended to be used as an evidence against the accused, then the court must be satisfied that either the deponent is dead or incapable of giving evidence or cannot be found or his/her presence cannot be procured without an unreasonable amount of delay, expense or inconvenience. In such cases, the evidence recorded u/s 299(1) of CrPC can form the basis of conviction.

Aarun Basha vs The State, CRL O P no. 28952 of 2018, The Madras High Court observed that the issue of absconding accused is one of the major causes for pendency of criminal cases before trial courts. It passed several important guidelines to deal with cases where some of the accused persons were absconding and instructed trial courts to effectively put into practice the provisions of Sec. 299 of the code which deals with recording of evidence in the absence of accused.

8. Rights of Child Victims of Sex Trafficking u/s 33-38 of POCSO

Ensure trial under POCSO is conducted in compliance with Sec.33 to 38 of the POCSO to protect victim's rights:

9. Legal Aid during Trial

- a) Permit applications filed u/s 301 (20 read with Sec. 24 (8) of CrPC) for the victim to engage a counsel.
- b) The victim can engage a counsel of his/her choice to assist the prosecution of the case. It is to be noted that the counsel shall not act against the case of the prosecution and that the provision of 301(2) read along with 24(8) means that the counsel for the victim increases the participation and involvement of the victim directly during the trial.

As per the decisions of several High Courts in Sathyavani Ponrani v. Samuel Raj & Ors. 2010 (2) MWN (Cr.) 273, Shankar v. State of Karnataka & Ors. (2013) 2 AIR Kant R 265, Lokesh Singh v. State of Uttar Pradesh (2013) 83 ACC 379, Uma Saha v. State of Tripura 2014 SCC OnLine Tri 859, Suneel Kumar Singh v. State of Uttar Pradesh 2019 SCC OnLine All 957, and Khumukcham Nikita Devi v. State of Manipur (2017) 176 AIC 839, the role of the victim's counsel should extend to putting questions to victims, raising objections to irrelevant questions put by the Public Prosecutor, and making oral arguments in addition to those made by the Public Prosecutor.

In case where a victim has no support to engage a counsel, it should be permitted through the legal services to have a panel lawyer appointed as per proviso (a) of the NALSA (Victims of Trafficking and Commercial Sexual Exploitation) Scheme, 2015.

10. Video Conferencing

Record evidence of victims via video conferencing. Recording of victim's statement via video conferencing in compliance with Memo No. 2323/ W.P. A 2/2011 dated 02/04/2014 issued by Department of Women Development and Child Welfare, Govt. of A.P.

As per Sec. 311, the Learned Court is empowered to summon any material witness during the trial if his or her evidence appears to be vital to the just decision of the case. The Supreme Court in State of Maharashtra v. Praful B. Desai, A.I.R. 2003 SC, stated that courts must bear in mind that the foremost duty of the court is to do justice and an acquittal due to failure to produce available evidence is a failing of justice in the same order as an unjust conviction.

Sec. 284 of CrPC states that whenever it appears to a Court that the examination of a witness is necessary for the ends of justice, and that the attendance of such witness cannot be procured without an amount of delay, expense or inconvenience which, under the circumstance of the case, would be unreasonable, the court may dispense with such attendance and may issue a commission for the examination of the witness.

STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES ON THE INTER-JURISDICTIONAL TRANSFER OF EVIDENCE IN TRAFFICKING CRIMES THROUGH VIDEO CONFERENCING, 2017

- The Presiding officer at the court point may direct the coordinator at the remote point to introduce himself and all the other persons present along with him in the room, before the witness starts testifying.
- Where, for any reason, a person unconnected to the case is present at the Remote point, then that person may be identified by the coordinator at the remote point at the start of the proceedings and the purpose for his being present should be explained to the Presiding Officer.
- Third parties may be allowed to be present during VC subject to orders of the Presiding Officer.
- In case a victim is testifying, the Presiding Officer may allow a guardian or a social worker to be present during the VC.
- The Presiding officer shall confirm the identity of the person to be examined with the assistance of the coordinator at the Remote Point at the time of recording of the evidence.
- The Presiding Officer needs to ensure that the person to be examined at the Remote Point can be seen and heard clearly and similarly, that the person to be examined at the Remote Point can clearly see and hear the Court.

- 7 The Presiding Officer needs to have, at all times, the ability to control the camera view at the Remote Point so that there is an unobstructed view of all the persons present in the room. In case the person being examined in the Remote Point would need to identify the accused at Court Point, or vice versa, the Court would need to ensure that the video camera is positioned in such a way that would allow the person being examined to have a clear and fair view of such individual as if he/she were physically present in the Court room.
- The Presiding Officer may have a clear image of each deponent to the extent possible so that the demeanour of such a person may be observed.
- While recording the evidence in writing, the Presiding Officer along with making note of the demeanour of the witness must record any interruptions due to internet connectivity or any other interference that occured while the testimony was being recorded.
- The record of proceedings including transcription of statement needs to be prepared at the Court Point under supervision of the Court and accordingly authenticated. Certain options are in vogue. One is video-recording of the entire proceedings. Another, and a better option, is that the soft copy of the transcript digitally signed by the coordinator at the Court Point shall be sent by e-mail to the Remote Point where a printout of the same may be taken and signed by the department. A scanned copy of the statement digitally signed by co-ordinator at the Remote Point be then sent by e-mail to the Court Point. The statement received by the Court Point through email be finally re-endorsed by the Presiding Officer.
- The Presiding Officer may at the request of a person to be examined, or on its own motion, taking into account the best interests of the person to be examined, direct appropriate measures to protect his privacy keeping in mind the witness's gender and physical condition.

- 12
- If, in the course of examination of a person at the remote point through VC, it is necessary to present a document to her/him, the Court may permit such a document to be presented in the following manner.
- a. If the document is at the Court Point, by transmitting a copy of it to the remote point electronically, including through a document visualiser, and the transmitted copy being then presented to the person being examined;
- b. If the document is at the Remote Point, by presenting it to the person being examined and transmitting a copy of it to the Court Point electronically, including through a document visualiser. The hard copy would also be sent, subsequently, to the Court Point by courier/mail.
- 13
- The Presiding Officer needs to ensure that the provisions u/s 33 of the POCSO Act, is adhered to, while examining a minor victim. This includes:
- a. Communicating all questions to the Presiding Officer, who shall in turn put those questions to the minor victim.
- b. Creating a victim friendly atmosphere by allowing a family member, a guardian, a friend or a relative, in whom the minor victim has trust or confidence, to be present in the court.
- c. Frequent breaks for minor victims.
- d. Not permitting aggressive questioning or character assassination of the minor victim and ensure that dignity of the minor victim is maintained at all times during the trial.

11. Language Interpreter

In cases of inter-state trafficking, where the victims belong to another state and are not familiar with the language of the Learned Court, appoint a translator.

Sec. 277 of the CrPC requires that if a witness gives evidence in a language other than the language of the Court, that evidence may be taken down in that language if it is practicable to do so. If it is not practicable, a "true translation" of the evidence must be made into the language of the Court, which must then be signed by the Judge. See CrPC Sec. 277(b), see also Selvi J. Jayalalitha v. State Represented by the Superintendent of Police, Dv and Ac, Chennai, 2011 CRLJ 1567; 2011 (3) KarLJ 187 (Kar HC 2010).

12. Travelling Expenses For Victim

If an offence under SC/ST (POA) Act is charged along with trafficking, direct for grant of travelling and maintenance expenses to the victim during investigation, inquiry & trial as u/s 15A of SC/ST (POA) Act.

Direct for travelling expenses for victims/ witnesses who do not belong to SC/ST, u/s 312 of CrPC and as per Andhra Pradesh The Criminal Rules of Practice and Circular Orders, 1990, Rule 236-251.

13. Discretion to Permit Cross Examination of Deferred Witness

Oppose application filed by defence u/s 231 CrPC to defer the evidence of the witnesses and delay the trial. Sec. 135 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1982 states that the order in which witnesses are produced and examined in a criminal case is regulated by the CrPC, in the absence of any such law in the CrPC, the order is left to the Court's discretion. Sec. 231 of the CrPC addresses the evidence for the prosecution in a trial before a Sessions Court, but neither CrPC Sec. 231 nor any other section in the CrPC directly addresses the order in which witnesses should be produced and examined. Following judgements may be referred.

Lalu Alam vs. The State of West Bengal 2003 (2) ALT Cri 2, the discretion to permit cross examination of any witnesses to be deferred until any other witness or witnesses have been examined u/s 231(2), doesn't give the accused a right to ask for deferring the cross-examination in a blanket way.

Abarna Mukhopadhyay vs. Diptiman Muhkopadhyay 2005 (2) CHN 92 The accused has no right to ask for wholesale deferring of cross-examination of witnesses.

C. SOME USEFUL JUDGEMENTS

While deliberating on the case, refer to following key case precedents that have been referred to by Judicial Officers across the country while passing judgements in human trafficking cases:

1. LABOUR TRAFFICKING CASES

Conviction in Labour Trafficking Cases

Kumara v. State of Karnataka, (2014) SCC OnLine Kar 8254, In this case, the accused made false assurances to the victims that he would pay them handsomely, then took them as workers in his brick factory. He did not let them go outside, provided no facilities like food, shelter or clothing and assaulted them. The Court found the offences u/s. 370 IPC, Sec. 23 and 26 JJA and Sec. 16, 17 and 18 of BLSA were prima facie shown, sufficient to deny the bail application.

Definition of Bonded Labour

People's Union for Democratic Rights Vs Union of india (1982) 3 SCC 235, Every form of forced labour, 'begar' or otherwise, is within the inhibition of Article 23 and it makes no difference whether the person who is forced to give his labour or service to another is remunerated or not. Even if remuneration is paid, labour supplied by a person would be hit by this Article if it is forced labour, that is, labour supplied not willingly but as a result of force or compulsion. Where a person provides labour or service too another for remuneration which is less than the minimum wage, the labour or service provided by him clearly falls within the scope and ambit of the words 'forced labour' under Article 23.

Neeraja Chaudhary Vs State of Madhya Pradesh (1984) 3 SCC 242, Whenever it is found that any workman is forced to provide labour for no remuneration or nominal remuneration, the presumption would be that he is a bonded labourer unless the employer or the State Government is in a position to prove otherwise by rebutting such presumption.

Dhanurjaya Patel Vs State of Orissa 2002 (H) OLR 412, Deprivation of the freedom of movement and right of expression with respect to person or property can be connoted as the meaning to the term 'slave' or 'slavery'. In this case, as per the prosecution allegation, when a person is allowed to put a labour of about 18 hours a day for a paltry sum of Rs.30/- may be with the assistance of his family members and yet he shall not have the freedom of expressing his grievance against the exploitation and meagre payment, this Court finds no better example of satisfying the requirement of the term 'slavery' in the context of the present day scenario and the prevailing law. Therefore, the allegation available from the Case Diary makes out a prima facie case satisfying the requirement of the terms 'slave' and 'slavery' too.

Explanation when NGO is complainant

Neeraja Chaudhary Vs State of Madya Pradesh (1984) 3 SCC 242 at 251-252, What is really necessary is to involve social action groups operating at the grass roots level in the task of identification and release of bonded labourers......It is only through social action groups working amongst the poor that we shall be able to discover the existence of bonded labour and we shall be able to identify and release them......(and) the State Government should start taking their assistance instead of looking at them askance and distrusting them.

Burden of proof for bonded debt

As per Sec. 15 of the BLSA, the burden to show that debt claimed by a bonded labourer is not bonded debt lies on the creditor.

Bandhua Mukti Morcha v. Union of India, (1984) 3 SCC 161, the Court held that, "there would be no occasion for a labourer to be placed in a situation where he is required to supply forced labour for no wage or for nominal wage, unless he has received some advance or other economic consideration from the employer and under the pretext of not having returned such advance or other economic consideration, he is required to render service to the employer...". Also, "whenever it is shown that a labourer is made to provide forced labour, the Court would raise a presumption that he is required to do so in consideration of an advance or other economic consideration received by him and he is therefore a bonded labourer". Further said that Sec. 15 of BLSA, "...lays down that whenever any debt is claimed by any labourer or a Vigilance Committee to be a bonded debt, the burden of proof that such a debt is not a bonded debt shall lie on the creditor". This presumption exists because otherwise, it would be extremely difficult for bonded labourers to prove it is not a bonded debt because they often do not have access to the appropriate evidence. If the employer has complied with employment law documentation requirements then he/she will have easy access to disprove the presumption if the debt is not a bonded debt.

Some useful Judgements 37

Fines alone are insufficient and need for appropriate punishment for bonded labour violations

People's Union for Democratic Rights Vs Union of India (1982) 3 SCC 235, Magistrate seem to overlook the fact that labour laws are enacted for improving the conditions of workers and the employers cannot be allowed to buy off immunity against violations of labour laws by paying a paltry fine which they would not mind paying, because by violating the labour laws, they would be making profit which would far exceed the amount of the fine. We would like to impress upon the Magistrates and Judges in the country that violation of labour laws must be viewed with strictness and whenever any violations of labour laws are established before them, they should punish the errant employers by imposing adequate punishment.

Bandhua Mukti Morcha Vs Union of India (1984) 3 SCC 160, The Magistrates and Judicial Officers are not sufficiently sensitised to the importance of observance of labour laws with the result that the labour laws are allowed to be ignored and breached with utter callousness and indifference and the workmen begin to feel that the defaulting employers can, by paying a fine which hardly touches their pocket, escape from the arm of law and the labour laws supposedly enacted for their benefit are not meant to be observed but are merely decorative appendages intended to assuage the conscience of the workmen. We would therefore strongly impress upon the Magistrates and Judicial Officers to take a strict view of violation of labour laws and to impose adequate punishment on the erring employers so that they may realise that it does not pay to commit a breach of such laws and to deny the benefit of such laws to the workmen.

Sec. 370 of IPC applies to trafficking

State of Odisha v. Pradesh, C.T (Special Act) Case No.11 of 2014, C.T(SA) Case No. 27 of 2014 (Court of Additional Session Judge-cum-Special Judge, Dharamgarh, District: Kalahandi, 24/12/2016), Based on the observations that the accused had engaged the victims in the field of the accused for labour work without any payment, using force with threat, after abducting them without allowing them to come outside made against the accused persons, it can be easily held that the essentials of the offence u/s 370 of IPC have been duly fulfilled by the prosecution for making out that offence.

Dharmendra Kumar Beuria v. State of Orissa, (2015) SCC OnLine Ori 472, If there is no dispute that there is a severe allegation, which is supported by independent materials that the victim was exploited and harboured as a person's similar to slave there is prima facie material before the Court indicating that the victim girl was, for the purpose of exploitation, recruited and harboured in the houses of the petitioners by inducing payment of money where FIR has been filed u/s 370 of IPC and BLSA.

2. SEX TRAFFICKING CASES

Consent obtained by fraud is not valid

Deelip Singh @ Dilip Kumar v. State of Bihar, AIR 2005 SC 203, If the consent of the person from whose possession the girl is taken is obtained by fraud, the taking is deemed to be against the will of such a person.

When detention may occur with victim's consent, or movement of victim's was not restricted

Nilofar and Nilam Usman Shaikh v. State of Gujarat, (2004) 3 GLR 2630, While the girls' movements might not have been restricted but that would not take out the case at present from the phrase as used in Sec. 9 of ITPA, 'having the custody, charge or care of, or a position of authority over any person'.

Abetment is allowed even if main accused has been acquitted:

Jamuna Singh v. State of Bihar, AIR 1967 SC 553, It cannot be held in law that a person cannot ever be convicted of abetting a certain offence when the person alleged to have committed that offence in consequence of the abetment has been acquitted. The question of the abettor's guilt depends on the nature of the act abetted and the manner in which the abetment was made.

Procedural Irregularities

Lack of local witness

Bai Radha v. State of Gujarat, AIR 1970 SC 1396, Failure to fully comply with the requirements of Sec.15(2) regarding local witnesses is 'not an illegality but is a mere irregularity'.

Failure to record grounds for search without warrant

Jurisdiction or power to make a search was conferred by the statute and not derived from the recording of reasons. A search which is to be conducted under the Act must comply with the provisions contained in Sec.15, but it cannot be held that if a search is not carried out strictly in accordance with the provisions of that section, the trial is rendered illegal.

Evidence from illegal search can still be used if the evidence is relevant

State of Himachal Pradesh v. Shri Pirthi Chand and Anr., AIR 1996 SC 977, It is settled law that illegality committed in investigation does not render the evidence obtained during that investigation inadmissible. In spite of illegal search, property seized on the basis of said search, still would form basis for further investigation and prosecution against the accused.

Victim's Age

Victim's age is determined at the time the offence occurred, not at the time of rescue

Smt. Narmada Govind Kamble v. State of Mah, 2010 CriLJ 1220, Even if it is presumed that she was 18 years of age at that time, she was brought in prostitution about 5 to 6 months before that and therefore it can be held that she was minor at the time when she was first put in the prostitution.

Determining Victim's age - No rule that additional years must be added for margin of error

State of U.P. v. Chhotey Lal, AIR 2011 SC 697, There is no such rule much less an absolute one that two years have to be added to the age determined by a doctor.

Sec.109 -115 IPC Abetment

U/s 109 of IPC, the act abetted must be committed in order to prosecute the abettor. A person is an abettor of a thing if he/she instigates a person to act/engages in any conspiracy/ intentionally aids, by an act or illegal omission, in the commission of an offence.

Example: 'A' a trafficker from Mumbai contacts one of his associate's 'B' resident of Hyderabad to kidnap a girl 'Z' from Warangal for carrying on prostitution. 'B' refused to commit the offence. If 'B' had kidnapped 'Z' and handed over 'Z' to 'A' and 'A' by threat forced 'Z' to accept sexual act with his customers, 'A' would have been subject to the punishment of death or imprisonment for life for the offences of Kidnap and Rape.

'B' confessed the same that he did not act upon the abetment of 'A'. Still 'A' shall be prosecuted as abettor of the offence for the offence u/s 370, 376 IPC read with 115 IPC.

If 'B' made any attempt to kidnap 'Z' in consequence of the abetment, both 'A' and 'B' shall be prosecuted. 'A' for the abetment of offence and 'B' for the actual offences committed against 'Z'.

Ashok Nivruti Desai v. State of Maharashtra, 1995 Cri. L.J. 826, the Bombay High Court held that the following acts amount to abetment: 1) the abettor watched the victim so that she could not leave the hut and 2) though the victim told her story to the abettor, the abettor did nothing to help.

State v. Sayed Mohd Rowther. 1969 K.L.T. 819, 5811, Abetment is a substantive offence, so, an abettor therefore can be convicted before the principal offender is apprehended and put on trial.

Priya Patel v State of Madhya Pradesh, 2006, 6 S.C.C. 263, The residential question on whether a woman can be charged for abetment of rape was left open to the Courts to decide. The Court held that if in law, it is permissible and the fact warrants such a course to be adopted, then the courts can act in accordance with the law.

OTHER USEFUL RULINGS

Laxmi v. State, 2010 Manu Del. 3231, The Delhi High Court applied Indian Evidence Act, Sec. 106 to place the burden on a brothel owner charged under ITPA, to prove that he or she did not have knowledge of the prostitution taking place on the premises. The High Court reasoned that such knowledge was within the brothel owner's mind.

Suseela v. State, 1982 (88) Cri. L.J. 702 Mad, A single instance of prostitution is sufficient to prove the offence.

Jagbir Walia v. Delhi Administration, 1998 S.C.C. (Cri.) 1519, u/s 15 ITPA the investigation is legal if the sub-inspector records the complainant's statement and then calls the SPO to the scene

Some useful Judgements 41

State v. Sardar Bahadur, 1969 Cri. L.J. 1120 (Cal.). No countersign of the SPO is needed, While subordinates can carry out, and even conduct a warrantless search, the SPO must be present, Delhi Administration v. Ram Singh, A.I.R. 1962 (S.C.) 63. Subordinates may sign search lists, witness statements or any other document related to the search and investigation.

Madhavi Jadhav v. State, 2006 (1) Bom. C.R. (Cri.) 784, The SPO can delegate the investigation to a subordinate officer.

Harbhajankaur v. State, 1969 Cri. L.J. 1038 (Bom.), Also, the subordinate officer can sign the charge sheet.

Bai Radha v. Gujarat, A.I.R. 1970 (S.C.) 1396, While the compliance with the SPO provision is mandatory, non-compliance with procedure related to panchas and women police constables does not vitiate the trial unless the accused can demonstrate prejudice.

Raja v. State, 2004 MANU Kar. 0520, The Karnataka High Court upheld the conviction u/s 366 of IPC based on the facts: 1) The appellant abducted a girl from Mysore by drugging her coffee and making her unconscious, 2) trafficked her to Mumbai from Bangalore and 3) sold her to a Mumbai brothel for prostitution.

Manjappa v. Karnataka, (2010) 9 S.C.C. 334, The Supreme Court affirmed the appellants' conviction for violating IPC Sec. 366A because the following evidence was sufficient to prove the offence: (i) The appellants tricked a minor girl to come from her home in Karnataka by claiming they would find her a job, (ii) they sold the minor girl to a brothel keeper and (iii) the brothel keeper forced her to prostitute.

3. JUDGEMENTS THAT ARE COMMON TO BOTH LABOUR AND SEX TRAFFICKING

Understanding Discrepancies

Ignore discrepancies that do not affect the root of the offence of trafficking.

Krishna Mochi and Others vs. State of Bihar, AIR 2002 SC 1965, When a rustic or illiterate witness faces an astute lawyer, there is bound to be imbalance and, therefore, minor discrepancies have to be ignored. Some discrepancy is bound to be there in each and every case which should not weigh with the Court so long as it does not materially affect the prosecution case.

State of U.P. v. Krishna Master and Ors. AIR 2010 Sc 3071, The prosecution evidence may suffer from inconsistencies and discrepancies, but that is a short-coming from which no criminal case is free. The main thing to be seen is whether those inconsistencies go to the root of the matter or pertain to insignificant aspects thereof.

State of Madhya Pradesh v. Surendra Singh, (2014) SCC OnLine MP 8706, Urmila Devi has corroborated the statement of the prosecutrix and given the details. There are minor omissions and contradictions, but these are natural. The omissions and contradictions show that the witnesses are not tutored. Keeping in mind that the witnesses are not highly educated, therefore, these contradictions are obvious.

Failure to examine some witnesses

Raj Narain Singh v. State of U.P. and Ors., (2009) 10 SCC 362, It is not necessary that all those persons who were present at the spot must be examined by the prosecution in order to prove the guilt of the accused.

4. VICTIM COMPENSATION

While pronouncing judgement, send a recommendation to DLSA for victim compensation within a time-bound manner u/s 357A CrPC and also in accordance with the G.O.Ms No. 9 dated 07/03/2015 issued by Govt. of A.P.

Recommendation must be made to the DLSA irrespective of the decision of conviction or acquittal of the accused in the case. DLSA may also be recommended to ensure that the victim has obtained all rehabilitation benefits under all relevant laws and policies.

In cases of Acquittal

If the case results in acquittal, the judgement may be sent to Director of

Some useful Judgements 43

Prosecution for processing. As per the Judgement in State of Gujarat v. Kishanbhai, ((2014) 5 SCC 108), "on the culmination of a criminal case in acquittal, the concerned investigating/prosecuting official(s) responsible for such acquittal must necessarily be identified. A finding needs to be recorded in each case, whether the lapse was innocent or blameworthy. Each erring officer must suffer the consequences of his lapse, by appropriate departmental action, whenever called for. Taking into consideration the seriousness of the matter, the concerned official may be withdrawn from investigative responsibilities, permanently or temporarily, depending purely on his culpability".

ANNEXURE MINIMUM STANDARDS OF CARE In Homes for Victims of Trafficking

Introduction

Anti trafficking measures comprises of prevention, protection and prosecution. It has been seen throughout the country that protection measures is the most important link to effective prevention and successful prosecution. But it is matter of serious concern that protection measures in the form of shelters have not fulfilled their objectives and poor rehabilitation measures have ended up in re-trafficking of victims.

With the aim to improve the conditions of shelter homes minimum standards of care is introduced. These standards for shelters for victims of commercial sexual exploitation / survivors of sex trafficking are those non-negotiable care components that should be integrated in any home managed either by the government or the civil society to ensure facilities for rehabilitation is in place as a matter of right of the victim. These standards will ensure that the safety, dignity and the well being of each victim are provided for.

The minimum standards of care will be reviewed every two years for relevance and changed according to the contemporary information available about care and protection of victims of trafficking.

The guiding principles of these standards are:

Rights Based : All standards will ensure that the basic human rights of the victim is upheld and respected. Additionally the following rights will be a integral part of each care process:

- Right to dignity
- Right non to be re-traumatized and re-victimized
- Right to informed choices and confidentiality
- Right to self-determination and participation

Individualized and Comprehensive: The care components should be inclusive and be able to address the needs of each individual through a continuum of care opportunities for all life domains of survivors.

Equitable : The program should ensure that all services are accessible to all victims. The services are designed in a manner that facilitates people who may be facing more vulnerability or impact to have an equal access to services.

Gender sensitive: The program should be child friendly and focused on the psychological recovery of the victim. The programs will recognize the gender based vulnerabilities and risks, will be developmentally appropriate and ensure that the recovery of the victim is paramount.

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Sub: Central Sector Scheme for Rehabilitation of Bonded Labourer - 2016

The Centrally Sponsored Scheme for Rehabilitation of Bonded Labourers 1978 was last revised in May 2000. In an evaluation of the performance of the scheme and consultation with stakeholders, it was realised that the scheme was not effective in elimination of Bonded Labour System and a revamp was necessary in the larger public interest. A draft scheme was accordingly prepared by the Ministry and circulated to all State Governments, NHRC, various concerned Ministries of Government of India and the same was also published in the official website of the Ministry for eliciting comments and suggestions from the public and other concerned citizens. Based on the suggestions and inputs received from all quarters including the Social Partners, Central Government has approved the revamped Scheme w.e.f. 17.05.2016. Copy of the revamped Scheme is appended hereto.

- The revamped scheme shall henceforth be known as a Central Sector Scheme which does not entail State share in the cash component of the rehabilitation package. The noncash component of the erstwhile CSP scheme will continue as it is, with minor modifications to suit the changing needs of the time.
- I am directed to convey the approval of Central Government of the said scheme for implementation by the State Governments/UT Administrations through their District Magistrates/Collectors/Sub-Divisional Magistrates.

Encl.: As above.

Central Sector Scheme for Rehabilitation of Bonded Labourer - 2016

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 Bonded Labour System in India is characterized by a long-term relationship between employer and employee, which is usually solidified through a loan or social obligation, and is embedded intricately in India's socio-economic culture marked by class/caste relations. Bonded labour contracts are not purely economic; in India, they are reinforced by custom or coercion in many sectors. The Constitution of India which was adopted by the Constituent Assembly on 26th November 1949 as the Magna Carta of Civil liberties, enshrines under dedicated Article 23, a specific provision declaring traffic in human beings, begar and similar forms of forced labour to be punishable offence.
- 1.2 The Government of India has ratified the ILO Convention C029 on 30th November 1954 which inter alia defines forced labour as "all work or service which is exacted from any person under the menace of penalty and for which the said person has not offered himself voluntarily"
- 1.3 The traditional form of bondage or forced labour in India are known as Adiyamar, Baramasia, Basahya, Bethu, Bhagela, Cherumar, Garru-Galu, Hali, Hari, Harwai, Holya, Jana, Jeetha, Kamiya, Khundit-Mundit, Kuthia, Lakhari, Munjhi, Mat, Munish system, Nit-Majoor, Paleru, Padiyal, Pannayilal, Sagri, Sanji, Sanjiawat, Sewak, Sewakia, Seri, Vetti. However, with the passage of time, new dimensions of bondage have crept in under different names. The system is much more intricate than mere economic or labour relations; it reflects the stratified social structure where one or more social groups work without consideration of minimum wages or other right-based labour standards just for the sake of honouring social custom or for fear of possible reprisal in case of non-conformity, which more often than not are characterised by physical violence, ostracisation, etc.
- 1.4 Emerging forms of forced labour and traffic in human beings, especially of children and other disadvantaged sections of society, require a holistic approach for law enforcement as well as comprehensive rehabilitation mechanism for social, psychological, educational and economic rehabilitation.

2. EVOLUTION OF THE SCHEME

2.1 The issue of 'bonded labour' came to the list of national priority when it was included in the old 20-Point Programme in 1975. The Bonded Labour System (Abolition) Ordinance was promulgated on 25th October, 1975. This was later on replaced by the Bonded Labour System (Abolition) Act, 1976 (hereinafter referred to as the Act). This Act provides for the abolition of the system of bonded labour with simultaneous liquidation of their debts. Since the subject is included in the Concurrent List, the Union Government stepped in to assist the State Governments in their task of rehabilitation of released bonded labourers. Accordingly, Ministry of जे. एस. सिस्हु/J. S. SIDHU उप त्रीयद/Deputy Secretary श्रम एवं रोजगार मंत्रालय Ministry of Labour & Employment मारत सरकार/Govt. of India मह दिल्ली/New Delhi Labour & Employment launched a Centrally Sponsored Scheme for rehabilitation of bonded labourers in May, 1978.

2.2 Originally the Scheme provided for rehabilitation assistance up to a ceiling limit of Rs. 4000/- per bonded labour to be equally shared by Central Government and State Governments on (50:50) basis. This amount was raised to Rs.6250/- w.e.f. 1.2.86; and to Rs.10,000/- w.e.f. 1.4.95. Out of this, Rs.1000/- was to be given as subsistence allowance to meet travel expenses etc. to the state of origin, in case the released bonded labour was to be repatriated to his or her native place/ State or for their subsistence until they are rehabilitated. With effect from 1.4.1999, only Rehabilitation assistance was enhanced to Rs. 20,000/-. The scheme was last revised in May 2000 wherein survey component, awareness generation activities and evaluation studies were included as additional items in the existing scheme.

3. OVERVIEW OF PERFORMANCE OF THE SCHEME AND NEED FOR REVISION

- 3.1 From the year 1978 to 2014-15, the Central Government has released ₹81.826 crores towards its share of rehabilitation assistance in respect of 280213 released bonded labourers in the entire country. The State Governments have contributed equal amount i.e. ₹81.826 crores thus taking the total amount to about ₹164 crores. The annual average expenditure has thus remained at the level of ₹2.21 crore. It has become a regular feature to surrender money under this scheme in the absence of adequate proposals from the States and operation of the scheme remained restricted to only 18 states.
- 3.2 Evaluation studies and other field level inputs indicate certain shortcomings in the existing scheme which inter alia includes: (i) Lack of regular monitoring; (ii)No mechanism to monitor court cases and convictions; (iii) Inadequate and unattractive rehabilitation package; (iv) Lack of flexibility of the scheme to address the needs of special category beneficiaries such as children including orphans, differently abled, trans-genders, people rescued from organised and forced begging rings and women and children rescued from trafficking and sexual exploitation including prostitution; (v) Lack of institutionalized mechanism to keep an account of the other major benefits listed in the existing scheme such as agricultural land, dwelling unit, skill training, education etc.; and (vi) Ineffectiveness of awareness generation camps. Hence, there was a strong need to update the scheme for making it more effective.

4. CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS & REVISION

4.1 Accordingly, Ministry of Labour & Employment conducted an in-depth study of all the operational limitations as listed above. Important stakeholders such as National Human Rights Commission, International Labour Organization, NGOs and activists working for bonded labours, UNESCO and other intellectuals were consulted for charting out the broad contours of the revised scheme. The draft scheme with approval of the competent authority was circulated for Inter-Ministerial and stakeholder consultation and copy of the same was also made available on the Ministry's website for eliciting views of the public. The draft was also circulated to all

The draft scheme duly incorporating the views of stakeholders was considered by the Standing Finance Committee (SFC) for consideration and approval. The SFC memorandum was appraised by the Ministry including the IFD by circulation and approved by the Hon'ble LEM as per norms of delegation of financial powers.

4.2 The revised scheme incorporates all relevant inputs and comments of stakeholders and addresses all the operational issues of the existing scheme in a holistic manner. The Chief Secretary (all State Governments) The Administrator (all UT Administrations) The District Magistrate/The Collector (All)

Subject: - Modifications In the Central Sector Scheme for the Rehabilitation of Bonded Labour, 2016 - regarding.

On the basis of feedbacks received from various stakeholders and with the approval of the Competent Authority, certain modifications have been made in the Central Sector Scheme for the Rehabilitation of Bonded Labour, 2016, as mentioned below:

Sl. No.	Gist of existing provisions	Amended provisions
1.	Central Government will reimburse the expenditure made by the States on Survey, Awareness Generation and Evaluatory Studies up to the financial limits prescribed in the Scheme [Para 5(x, xl, xll) of the 2016 Scheme].	Central Government will give 50% of the amount required for conducting Survey, Awareness Generation and Evaluatory Studies in advance. A State may conduct survey once in every three years per sensitive district. A State may conduct five Evaluatory Studies per year.
2.	District Magistrate will submit financial claim to the district NCLP Society which in turn will submit the demand to the Central Government. The Central Government will release funds to the District NCLP Society for onward release to the District Administration. [Para 6 & 7 of the 2016 Scheme]	The fund release architecture in operation prior to 2016 Scheme will be followed and the existing NCLP route has been done away with in view of the fact that many of the districts of a State do not have NCLP Society. The District Administration will send the financial demand to the State's concerned Ministry/ Department dealing with the BLR scheme and the State Ministry/ Department will send the proposal through the State's Ministry/Department will be helpful both for the Centre and the State in monitoring the implementation of the Scheme.

3.	Immediate assistance of Rs. 20,000/- (increased from 5 thousand to 20 thousand w.e.f. 17.01.2017) to be provided by the District Administration to the rescued person out of the District Bonded Labour Rehabilitation Fund linked to conviction of the accused. [Para 5(xtv)]	Immediate assistance upto Rs. 20,000/- may be provided to the rescued bonded labour by the District Administration irrespective of the status of conviction proceedings.
4(i).	The Format for Release Certificate appended to the 2016 Scheme does not capture the caste category of the rescued bonded labourer	The entry at S. No. 1 of the Format for Release Certificate shall be substituted with the following expression: "I. Name and Caste Category of the rescued bonded labourer:" (It is necessary as the budget has separate provision for SC and ST)
4(ii)	The Release Certificate requires date of conviction and release order (meaning thereby that a Release Certificate is to be issued after the conviction proceeding has concluded).	So as to enable issuance of Release Certificate at the time of release of rescued bonded laborer prior to conclusion of conviction proceedings, it has been decided to do away with replace the existing entries at S. no. 16 to 19 in the Format for Release Certificate.

2. It is requested to ensure that the modification in the 2016 Scheme as mentioned above are circulated among all concerned.

Section 1: Introduction

Child Labour is the system of employing a child to provide labour or service by the child to any person, for any payment or benefit to the child, or any other person exercising control over the said child. International Labour Organisation (ILO) uses the term 'child labour' to cover all economic activities carried out by persons less than fifteen years of age, regardless of their occupational status (wage earners, own-account workers, unpaid family workers etc) but not household work performed by them in their parents' home, except where such work can be assimilated to an economic activity as for example, when a child must devote his or her entire time to the work so that his or her parents can be employed outside the home, and is, therefore, deprived of the possibility of going to school.

Child labour includes children prematurely leading adult lives, working long hours for low wages under conditions damaging to their health and to their physical and mental development, sometimes separated from their families, frequently deprived of meaningful education and training opportunities that could open up for them a better future.

India has always stood for constitutional, statutory and developmental measures that are required to eliminate child labour in India. Realising the multifaceted nature of this problem, Government has embarked on a holistic and multi-pronged approach to eliminate child labour from the country. On the one hand, it provides for legal action for enforcement purposes and on the other, focuses on general development programmes for the economic empowerment of the families of children as well as project based action in areas of high concentration of child labour.

1.1 Vision and Objectives

Vision: Complete elimination of child labour in all work and adolescent labour in hazardous work, and regulation of adolescent labour.

Objectives: The SOP is conceived as a working tool on law enforcement for practitioners and specialists of governmental, non-governmental and civil society organisations at different stages of intervention. To achieve the stated vision through the SOP, following objectives are laid down:

Develop effective action plan from the village to the national level for prevention of child labour and adolescent labour in hazardous (a) work; Create mechanisms for identification, rescue and rehabilitation of child labour and adolescent labour in hazardous work: (b) Establish mechanisms for regulation of children working in entertainment industries and sports activities: (c) Ensure strong investigation of all cases of child labour and adolescent labour in hazardous work leading to strengthening the prose-(d) cution against offenders: Ensure coordinated and convergent action of stakeholders through clear definition of roles and responsibilities and thereby ensure standardisa-(e) tion of response to violation of child labour throughout the country; Develop monitoring and accountability mechanisms at the district, state and central level.

1.2 Need of Standard Operating Procedure

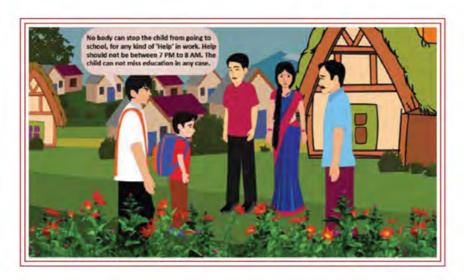

Effective enforcement and implementation of the provisions of the various legislations, convergence of resources of Government both horizontally and vertically, coordination between various stakeholders and active involvement of the community is the key to attaining the ambitious goal of a child labour free society. It has been observed that in-spite of presence of plethora of protective legislations, the stakeholders are not very clear about the action to be taken when a child or adolescent labour is identified. Specific information is required on steps to be taken for rescue of the child/ adolescent and subsequent rehabilitative measures to be taken. Sometime the language of legislation is not understood by common people restricting the enforcement of the provisions. In this backdrop, it is necessary that a simple step by step SoP is provided to ensure enforcement of the provisions of the protective legislation.

Section 3- Prevention of Child Labour and Adolescent Labour in Hazardous Employment

The Child Labour (Prohibition & Regulation) Amendment Act, 2016 and the amended Central Rules look to prohibit child labour and adolescent labour in hazardous employment. An important aspect of such prohibition is prevention of child labour and adolescent labour in hazardous employment. This will require consistent and proactive investigation on the part of law enforcement agencies for early detection of crime and collection of evidence to stop child labour before the crime takes place or when the crime is detected in transit. The prevention strategy for an area has to be developed looking into the community resources, forming networks for intelligence collection, analysis of existing data and consistent collection of information of identified key vulnerability indicators.

Prevention activities to be undertaken may be categorized as follows:

- 3.1 Creation of Awareness: Specific action has been identified as necessary to create awareness among general public and vulnerable communities for prevention, and ensuring that children have access to free and compulsory education as per section 2A of the Rules. This includes:
- Launching of public awareness campaigns targeted to the general public, consumers, vulnerable communities, employers etc. using folk, traditional media, mass media such as television and / or radio etc.
- Awareness campaigns to encourage reporting by facilitating access to the number of the police, child line and local district nodal office in the labour department.
- Create and display in an easily understandable manner salient provisions of the Act and the Rules in public places.
- Empower and enable the public and community resources like Panchayat, Women's groups, children's groups, schools, teachers etc. to generate intelligence regarding any violation. Awareness among children and adolescents can be undertaken at the school level or through mid-media activities such street plays, competitive activities and folklore activities etc.

- Aid and assist different training institutes for senior government officials, judicial training institutes, business schools, law schools etc to include information on legal implication of child and adolescent labour.
- Conduct sensitization programs for the employers/ officials of industries or institutions to generate legal awareness and their role in eliminating child labour by district administration.
- 3.2 Building Capacity of Institutions: Creating prescribed institutional mechanisms and building capacity of institutions to carry out tasks assigned to them is also one of the prerequisites to prevent child labour and adolescent labour in hazardous employment.
 - Formation of a District Task Force (DTF) in every district with the District Magistrate as its chairperson, with members as prescribed under Rule 17 C (iii) of the Child and Adolescent Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Rules, 1988. The task force shall meet once a month and shall identify areas in the district vulnerable to child labour (NCLP survey, survey as per the Bonded Labour Rehabilitation Scheme and/ or information from the local CWC etc maybe used). The task force shall coordinate such activities as necessary at the local level for awareness generation, monitoring and stopping child labour and adolescent labour in hazardous employment.
 - The labour department/DM shall appoint a District Nodal Officer (DNO) who shall track the cases of child labour on PENCIL Portal and recommend necessary activities in the monthly DTF meetings for prevention of child labour and adolescent labour in hazardous employment.
 - Consistent tracking of complaints of child labour and adolescent labour in hazardous employment through the online portal 'PENCIL'. The District Nodal Officer to fill and bring all the complaints from other sources to 'PENCIL'. Child Tracking System under PENCIL would ensure prevention through checking their re-entry into the labour market and their regularity in school.

- 3.3 Coordination and Convergence among Agencies: An important step towards prevention is coordination among various child protection agencies at the District, State and Center.
- Coordination with Ministry of Women and Child Development sharing of information from child helpline, surveys or portals of Mo WCD for identification of child labour.
- Coordination with Department of School Education & Literacy- At the school level reporting of children who have been consistently absent from school for 30 days and ensuring enrolment and retention of all children; and at the State and Central level inclusion of information about child labour in the syllabus and education material is key in ensuring prevention of child labour.
- Consistent coordination and work with other agencies at the district level such as District Child Protection Unit (DCPU), Special Juvenile Police Unit (SJPU), Child Line, District Magistrate/ Sub-District Magistrate, Child Welfare Committee, National Child Labour Project, Village-level Child Protection Committee under ICPS, District-level Vigilance Committee under ITPA Act, 1986, Schools and Panchayat through the District Task Force (DTF).
- Coordination and convergence with local level skill development department can ensure skill training of young persons to protect them from being employed in hazardous labour.
- 3.4 Knowledge Management: Managing existing knowledge and ensuring availability of sufficient information for data driven planning to prevent child labour is key.
- Information from surveys such as the NCLP survey and the survey under the Central Sector Scheme for Rehabilitation of Bonded Labourers can ensure identification and mapping of vulnerability towards child labour and adolescent labour in hazardous employment.
- Ensuring the above stated information as well as information from CWCs is fed into 'PENCIL' and then analyzed to map vulnerable geographical areas, areas of employment etc to plan prevention programs as well as to identify new forms of hazardous labour for adolescents or hazardous work where children should not help also leads to prevention.

- Analysing information collected from the database of missing children.
- Information received from previously rescued survivors can also help to receive information about potential violations.
- Forming a strong network with stakeholders and law enforcement agencies engaged in transit points and destination areas will ensure data collection and prevention.

An illustrative list of places where awareness generation against child labour and provisions of Child and Adolescent labour (P&R) Act, 1986 may be undertaken. Note that this list is not exhaustive:

GOVERNMENT OF ANDHRA PRADESH ABSTRACT

WD & CW Dept - Policy for combating trafficking of women and children for commercial sexual exploitation - Orders Issued.

Women Development, Child Welfare & Disabled Welfare (Progs) Dept.

G.O.Ms.No. 1 Dated: 03-01-2003

ORDER:

The problem of trafficking of women and children for the purpose of sexual exploitation has assumed alarming proportions in recent years. Trafficking is prevalent at various levels- local, inter-District, Inter-State and Cross-Border. Commercial exploitation of women and children takes place in various forms including brothel based prostitution, sex tourism entertainment industry and pornography in print and electronic media. There are major obstacles in assessing the exact magnitude of the problem of trafficking. However, various reports have highlighted the fact that a high percent age of victims of trafficking are from the State of Andhra Pradesh alone. Similarly, while there are no precise estimates, the available data indicate that nearly 50% of the victims belong to Scheduled Caste and up to 30% belong to the other Backward Classes.

- 2. Trafficking is a multi-dimensional problem encompassing a whole range of economical, social and cultural issues, which are varied and highly complex. Most of the victims have been trafficked with promises of Jobs, better career prospects and marriage. Some are inducted forcibly through abduction. Poverty and Deprivation, secondary status accorded to women in society, prejudice against the girl child, weakening of the family structure, changing public attitudes towards sex and morality, the caste structure, urbanization and migration are other factors, which have contributed to the commercial sexual exploitation of women and children. Apart from trafficking, certain traditional forms of prostitution are prevalent, e.g. Jogins, Marthammas, Dommaras, Basavis.
- Trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation of women and children have resulted not only in violation of rights but also in very adverse physical, psychological and moral consequences for the victims, which are serious, lifelong, and also life-threatening. About 60-70% victims suffer from more than one disease including sexually transmitted diseases such as HIV/AIDS. The rescued victims are invariably penniless, physically ill and psychologically broken.

- 4. Taking into consideration the above, a comprehensive policy and action plan covering various aspects such as prevention, trafficking, rescue, repatriation, economic empowerment, health care, education, housing, legal reforms and creation of corpus fund is necessary for addressing the problem of trafficking. There is also need for planning and coordination both at the district level and the state level for addressing the deep rooted and underlying causes of trafficking and also taking adequate measures for psychological support, economic empowerment andre integration so that the victims do not get drawn into the trade again on account of non availability of other options for livelihood.
- 5. As most of the components of the Action Plan have to be implemented at the District level, Government have decided to constitute District-level Committees with the following composition for taking up activities for prevention, rescue and rehabilitation of victims:

District Collector Chairman

Superintendent of Police Member

District Education Officer Member

District Medical & Health Officer Member

PD, District Rural Development Authority Member

Representatives of the SC/ST/BC

in related areas by Dist. Collector

Project Director, Women Development & Child Welfare Agency Member-Convener.

Government have also decided that the following activities shall be taken up by the District Level Committees: -

PREVENTION:

NALSA (Victims of Trafficking and Commercial Sexual Exploitation) Scheme, 2015

BACKGROUND

Under Section 4 (b) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, the "Central Authority", i.e. the National Legal Services Authority, has been obligated to "frame the most effective and economical schemes for the purpose of making legal services available under the provisions" of the Act. The Preamble of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, underscores that the legal services authorities are concerned with the weaker sections of the society and imposes a duty on them to ensure that opportunities for securing justice are not denied to any citizen by reason of economic or other disabilities.

There can be no doubt that victims of commercial sexual exploitation, whether trafficked or voluntary sex workers are by far a highly marginalised group. Their rights are forgotten; their conditions of life and living are not anybody's concern; what happens to them and their children interest no-one. Yet they are all entitled to benefits of the various schemes of the government by the mere fact of who they are. By their much marginalised existence they are entitled to all benefits that accrue to them as are available to other marginalised sections of the society.

Victims of trafficking for commercial sexual exploitation face a great deal of trauma not just following such trafficking but also after their rescue. They need to be protected against the traffickers who would want them to come back or not pursue their case. There are also livelihood issues and if a viable alternative is not given, chances of being re-trafficked are high.

In the case filed by PRAJWALA, being Writ Petition (C) No.56 of 2004 the NALSA has given a report in the Supreme Court to take the following actions in respect of victims of trafficking for commercial Sexual Exploitation and sex workers:

"The role of the legal services authorities as set out in the preliminary report is reiterated as follows:

- (a) Provide legal assistance to the victims of trafficking and sexual exploitation at the time of rescue and thereafter during trial.
- (b) Facilitate the accessing of the District Legal Services Authorities(DLSAs) for award of victim compensation under Section 357ACr.P.C
- (c) To monitor and act as social auditors of the existing facilities available for rehabilitation of rescued victims of sexual exploitation and trafficking.
- (d) DLSAs can spread awareness in the community through the panel lawyers and para-legal volunteers about the issues of trafficking particularly in vulnerable areas and among vulnerable groups.
- (e) The DLSAs can act as converging nodes to ensure that the government schemes meant for the marginalized actually reach them as such access to the government support does have a positive impact in preventing trafficking and falling prey to traffickers.
- (f) Initiate steps to sensitize the corporate world to support rehabilitation measures for trafficked victims including skill building and employment under the head of CSR.
- (g) SLSAs can also assist in the training and sensitization of stakeholders, like police, lawyers including legal services lawyers, prosecutors, government servants and the judiciary.
- (h) SLSAs may also collaborate with the local educational institutions and civil society organisations and NGOs working in this field."

The NALSA believes that it is necessary to draw up a scheme to give a framework for the legal services authorities at different levels to put into action the undertaking given to the Supreme Court. To that end the present Scheme has been drawn up. It is expected that the Legal services authorities at all levels would be able to render legal services effectively to these vulnerable people by following the present scheme.

NAME OF THE SCHEME

The Scheme shall be called "NALSA (Victims of Trafficking and Commercial Sexual Exploitation) Scheme, 2015".

The objective of the Scheme is to provide legal services to address the concerns of victims of trafficking including women of all age groups and at every stage: ie prevention, rescue and rehabilitation.

The thrust of the scheme is to provide economic and social pathways for these marginalised groups so that they are socially included and thus get all social protections available to an ordinary citizen. The interventions of the legal services authorities should be to ensure the protection of the dignity of the victims which is as much their fundamental right to a life as of any other citizen.

In order that the already marginalised voluntary sex workers are not excluded from the assistance of the legal services authorities, they are also considered victims of commercial sexual exploitation, apart from those children and adults who are trafficked for the purpose.

STRATEGY FOR LEGAL SERVICES TO THE VICTIMS

The strategy of the legal services must be guided by a 360 degree approach. Thus, children, young adults of whatever sex, adolescent girls, young women and older women should all be included in the action plan. The legal services authorities must also develop an action plan for prevention, rescue and rehabilitation and not merely for one of these aspects. Further the legal services authorities must document each case and carry out a follow up at least for three years so that reintegration of the victim into the society is complete.

Enabling trafficked women to get their entitlements by completing all due diligence processes

The action plan must be to use the existing welfare schemes of the Government, both Central as well as the State, with a life-cycle approach to strengthen social security, social development and welfare in order to cover prevention of trafficking and rehabilitation of the victims. DLSA can request NGOs/CBOs to use tools such as micro planning and surveys to ascertain the demand for schemes and thereafter set up Help Desks across the district to facilitate registration for the schemes. Simultaneously the victims/community members could be motivated and educated about how to apply for schemes they wish to enroll or register for.

The DLSA, with the support of the concerned department could facilitate the applicant to fulfil the procedures stipulated under each scheme and comply with all the due diligence processes. This would include enabling the applicant to get the supportive documents that are required to be furnished in order to establish eligibility for the benefits under a scheme, such as getting proof of residence, age certificate, nativity certificate, income certificate, etc. Once all the due diligence is over and the scheme sanctioned, DLSA should provide support to the community till the scheme gets delivered or the benefit reaches the beneficiary.

The Available Schemes

- 1. ICDS or Childcare development ---0-6 years, pregnant women and lactating mothers (as care givers)
- 2. Food security or ration cards
- 3. Social security or Pension for the elderly women
- Educational schemes including midday meal, bridge schools, residential schools of Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan, Sabala; scholarships for the primary, secondary and higher education from Social Welfare Department for adolescents and specifically girls

- Livelihood- Skill Development, Financial Inclusion, Micro Enterprise -from SC/ST/BC/Minority and Women's Development Corporation and CSR funds from government and public sector undertakings
- 6. Housing or Subsidy for Construction and Land Pattas from Urban Development, Housing Corporation
- 7. Universal entitlements-Jan Dhan, Aadhar, Voter Card, SHG membership
- 8. Legal aid Schemes-Legal Literacy, Para Legal Volunteers, Legal services clinics to ensure free legal aid and protection

Role of LSAs

The most important role of the SLSAs/DLSAs is to maintain convergence oversight. While the administrative convergence for all the schemes no doubt will be under the District Collector, the protection convergence will have to be overseen by the SLSAs and the DLSAs. To converge social and legal protection for marginalized women SLSAs and DLSAs will provide the oversight on the process of convergence by bringing together the administrative convergence provided by the District Collector and those generated by the structures or community organizations that are facilitating the process on the ground and are rooted in the community and its realities and have played significant roles in preventing HIV, trafficking and violence against women and girls. In this background, the role of the SLSAs/DLSAs would be in:

Bridging the Gap- between all departments and trafficked women, women in sex work and those vulnerable to trafficking and extreme violence

Enhancing Engagement- Scheme Education Drive Organized by DLSA bringing together Community organizations and its members and government-department-district and sub-district administration

Facilitating Participation and Ownership-Led by DLSA in collaboration with community organizations through community meetings and camps

Sensitization- Enabling all departments and institutions to learn about dynamics of community, remove misconceptions

Strengthening Accountability – Through an MIS capturing all processes from identifying entitlement holder to scheme delivery.

Forging Partnerships – At the more micro level the collaborations will be with Community Organizations and NGOs working with sex workers and victims of trafficking and sexual exploitation. They will facilitate the process of reaching out to the many hidden members of the community and shape the process of community mobilization.

At the meso level, the partnership should be with and between district administrative mechanisms such as Department of Women and Child Development (especially Child Protection/Welfare Committees and Anti Human Trafficking Units) and the DLSA. This will highlight initiatives at the ground level with the community or beneficiaries.

The third level of partnership will be at the macro level with the Department of Women and Child which implements many schemes for victims of trafficking and also runs shelter homes for those rescued; Ministry of Home Affairs, Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment and Rural Livelihood Mission which also has the mandate of prevention of human trafficking and will be vital partner to strengthen protection and safety nets to the beneficiaries.

Action Plan

The first step that the DLSA should take is to reach out to the Non Governmental Organisations and Community Based Organisations (CBOs)working in the field. To do this, the SLSAs must contact the UNICEF or UNODC. State Agencies such as Department of Women and Child, Rural Livelihood Missions. They must also seek the assistance of the National Aids Control Organisation (NACO) and the State and District

80

Aids Control Societies (SACS & DACS). Thus the SLSAs/DLSAs would be able to obtain information about trafficking as well as sex workers.

The second step would be to catalyse inter departmental convergence both at the State and further down to the district level so that an all inclusive and comprehensive response from all concerned departments and stakeholders emerges and essential inter-sectoral linkages, processes and mechanisms get established.

Trafficking: As regards trafficking, from the Anti Human Trafficking units in the State and with the help of the NGOs/CBOs, the DLSA should map out the vulnerable areas and the vulnerable populations within its jurisdiction. Then preventive strategies can be put into motion. These would be spreading information about schemes and connecting the vulnerable people to such schemes so that they benefit from them. This would also include spreading awareness about the law and about the dangers posed by prospective traffickers. The children and adolescent children could be made aware of the dangers of strangers befriending them and the parents cautioned about the falsity of promises made to them of better education for their children in cities. Young adults could similarly be warned about false promises of jobs and better lives.

The SLSAs/DLSAs should create a team of panel lawyers and social workers to spread awareness about the welfare schemes of the government. The PLVs should be used to ensure that all the due diligence processes including eligibility documents and proofs are collected to enable the vulnerable communities to access the various schemes. The DLSA should use their PLVs and their offices wherever necessary to interact with the Administrative heads such as the District Collector or Chief Secretary to ensure the final realisation of the scheme.

The PLVs attached to or assigned to a police station in compliance of the orders of the Supreme Court of India to handle cases of missing children should be given special training by the SLSAs /DLSAs to sensitise them on children's issues as well as trafficking issues, so that they are responsive. These PLVs must inform the SLSAs/DLSAs whenever such a case of trafficking is reported or arrest of a sex worker occurs at the police station.

Sex Workers: One method of understanding community needs is to organise meetings between the Member Secretary SLSA or Full Time Secretary DLSA and the community leaders where the community leaders can explain the difficulties they face in accessing social entitlements especially the social security schemes such as widow and old age pension schemes even though they fall under eligible category.

The other method is to organize public hearings where community members would "depose", or in other words relate their experience with governance at all levels. The "jury" should be made up of DLSA Chairperson and /or Full time secretary, other judicial officers wherever possible, high government functionaries such as DC, Principal secretaries or Chief Secretaries, police officers and protection officers. The SLSAs/DLSAs should also involve senior advocates and panel lawyers in such programmes.

After the deposition the Member Secretary /Secretary as the case maybe or the panel advocate should explain to the community about the legal services available in the Legal Services Authority and encourage them to file complaints and seek free legal aid whenever their rights are infringed or they have a legal problem such inheritance etc. The Legal Services Authority can enable the target groups to redress the violence and harassment they face in their day to day life. In cases of violence from partners or husbands, the DLSA along with Protection Officers can provide legal aid and counselling services.

The DLSAs can accredit Para legal volunteers drawn from the community and train them as per the NALSA module. These PLVs can then act as the front line workers of the Authority as far as the community is concerned. The effort must be to ensure "saturation coverage" by having representation from all the blocks of the district and ultimately the entire State.

Once again, the DLSAs should assess the need for schemes in the community and facilitate the access of the community to the various welfare schemes of the government in the manner as mentioned hereinbefore.

Prevention: While ensuring the implementation of government welfare schemes, the SLSAs/DLSAs should pay attention to the structure already available under the Integrated Child Protection Scheme, particularly the setting up of the Village Level Child Protection Committees (VLCPC). These Committees are made up of Panchayat members, school teachers, students and parents from the community. Special awareness programmes should be organized for the VLCPC to keep a watch on the children in the village. The teachers should be sensitized to keep a watch for children missing from school and report them, so that further enquiries about their well being are promptly made.

A similar awareness and sensitization programme should be organized for the Anganwadi and Health workers for younger children and adolescent girls. Again, the SLSAs/DLSAs must ensure that children remaining absent are followed up and reported immediately.

PLVs drawn from the VLCPCs and Anganwadis as well as teachers should be trained with special emphasis on the issues of trafficking and sexual exploitation. The work of these PLVs must be closely monitored. At the same time these PLVs must be given effective mentors and support so that any incident reported is given full and complete attention by the SLSA/DLSA concerned.

Student Legal Literacy Clubs should be encouraged to write about and talk and discuss about trafficking issues. These clubs could play the role of peer educators about the dangers of growing up and how to keep oneself safe.

The SLSAs/DLSAs should strengthen groups who are working to prevent child marriages and empowerment of women. Many times, child and forced marriages are a prelude to trafficking for sexual exploitation. Apart from spreading awareness student groups should be formed in vulnerable areas and communities to report on child marriages and initiate preventive action.

While dealing with women already in sex work, the SLSAs/DLSAs should focus on the livelihood alternatives to help these women come out of the profession and prevent their children entering it. Women could be encouraged to save money and channelize the money into entrepreneurship which would ensure their social recognition and assimilation. The SLSAs/DLSAs should help the women to protect themselves from domestic violence and provide legal assistance to follow up court cases. They should help these women access all government schemes as mentioned above.

Strategies of prevention and protection of victims of trafficking implemented by the Rural Livelihood Missions should also be understood and explored so as to replicate some of the successful methods and establish collaborative efforts.

Rescue and Rehabilitation: The protocol for the One Stop Crisis Centre would no doubt be available for the rescued victims of trafficking. Apart from ensuring compliance of the directions of the Supreme Court in Prajwala's case, the SLSAs/DLSAs must also follow up with the rehabilitation of the victim chiefly through access to government schemes to provide a stable alternate livelihood for the victims. The DLSAs should ensure that panel lawyers and PLVs help the victims to get their FIR registered and are present during remand proceedings to oppose bail etc. The Panel lawyers should obtain court orders for protection of witnesses wherever necessary and to counsel the victims before deposition and be present during trial including recording of the statement of the victim. The panel lawyers and PLVs should also help the victim to apply to the DLSAs for release of compensation under the Victims Compensation Scheme and also to access other welfare schemes of the Govt. meant for the rehabilitation of such victims

Management Information Systems: The SLSAs and DLSAs will have to develop a sound MIS so that every activity under this scheme is recorded, followed up and assessed. Similarly, the assistance of the PLVs and the Panel lawyers given to the victims will have to be recorded and monitored closely by the Secretary DLSA. Where the DLSA has facilitated the rehabilitation, there must be a tracking of the person for at least three years so that the rehabilitation is complete and there is no danger of retrafficking.

Transgenders: The provisions of this scheme will be applicable to all Transgenders as well.

DGP, CID, AP, Hyd.

In the meeting of the State Co-ordination Committee on Trafficking of women and children held on 3-2-2003 in the chambers of Chief Secretary, it was pointed out that majority of the cases booked were against the victims / sex worker U/s. (4) of ITP Act and not against the traffickers. Sec. (4) of ITP Act states that any person living on the earning of the prostitution of any other, person is liable for the offence under this section and not the victim who is indulging in prostitution for her own living. Thus the victim women cannot be booked under section (4) of the ITPA. Like-wise it was already pointed out in the memo C.No.21/SP(WPC)/CID/2002, Dt: 21-9-2002 of Addl. DGP, CID, AP, Hyderabad, that cases against women victims of sexual exploitation should not be booked U/s. (8) of ITPA for soliciting and only Pimps / Organisers / Traffickers should be booked. Inspite of the instructions issued, cases are being booked against victims U/s. 8 of ITP Act by some unit officers. It should also be borne in mind that during any raids on a brothel house, if a minor girl is found a victim, a case should also be booked under rape ie., 376 IPC against the male customers and traffickers, organizers and pimps.

Hence, all the Supdts. Of Police and Commissioners of Police are instructed not to book repeat not to book the victim women for soliciting. Our endeavour should always be to bring the traffickers and organizers to book. If, in future, any cases are booked against the women for soliciting, the explanation of the concerned officers be called for and action initiated against them. All Ss.P and Cs.P will acknowledge the receipt of this memo.
